Grain Board May Use Broker Offices

left to supply and demand, and the Dominion treasury reimbursing the producers by some form of subsidy when the price fell below what was considered a reasonable minimum.

When Mr. Bennett, chairman of the committee, endeavored to obtain a definite opinion from Mr. Miller of the manner in which operations of the proposed grain board would be harmful to the industry, the witness asked for time to consider his reply.

It was quite conceivable, the Prime Minister said, the proposed grain board would utilize the existing selling agencies to market the crop, since they had the necessary contacts, which the board would not have in its initial stages.

STARTS DISCUSSION

This suggestion aroused considerable interest among the committee members and discussion was going forward on this point when adjournment was reached. Mr. Miller was uncertain without giving it further thought that such a system would be feasible and would enable the grain selling agencies to carry on.

The committee adjourned until tomorrow morning.

RAISON D'ETRE PRINTING

To-day's sitting of the committee opened with a clash between Premier Bennett and Hon. J. L. Ralston, Liberal, Shelburne-Yamouche, N.S., on a motion to have the evidence printed.

The new board would either continue the policies of John I. McFarland or it would not, Col. Ralston said. The committee should obtain information on that point. Mr. McFarland had taken over 75,000,000 bushels of wheat and this had grown to about 225,000,000. The committee should consider whether the policy which had brought this about was a wise one.

"Do you think these observations should be made at another time and let us get on with the business of the committee?" Mr. Bennett, chairman of the committee, asked. It had been agreed to hear certain witnesses to-day. They were present and should be heard now.

Col. Ralston objected. The question he had raised, he said, was "the business of the committee." He was prepared to let it stand, but he protested against its being ruled out without discussion.

"I do not wish to indulge in hair-splitting," Mr. Bennett replied, and the committee started hearing evidence.

VANCOUVER PROPOSALS

Robert McKee, managing director of the Canadian Grain Export Company, Vancouver, appeared on behalf of the Vancouver Board of Trade, Merchants' Exchange, Chamber of Shipping, and the Vancouver Grain Exchange.

Mr. McKee read a telegram signed by the Vancouver Grain Exchange, suggesting as an alternative to the government's proposal, creation of a three-man board to be invested with the powers at present held by Mr. McFarland.

His primary object would be to support the market from time to time and, over a period of years if necessary, liquidate the present holdings of the government without unduly depressing the world price.

B.C. COAST'S OUTLOOK

As a citizen of Vancouver, apart from his natural interest as one engaged in the trade for more than twenty-four years, Mr. McKee expressed apprehension the operations of the grain board proposed in the bill would do much harm to Vancouver—one of the greatest grain shipping ports in the world.

Asked by the chairman to explain how the government's proposed action could have this effect, Mr. McKee said the bulk of grain shipped from Vancouver to Europe by the 8,000-mile Panama Canal route was set aside before it was sold, and that sale did not take place until it neared the market.

AS BROKERS

The Prime Minister asked if the grain board decided to make the shipping interests of Vancouver its brokers, would that not meet the complaint?

Mr. McKee did not think so. The monopoly in Canadian wheat would, he was confident, react against the movement through that port.

Stanley S. McKee, Vancouver, who represented the same bodies as those for which Mr. McKee had spoken, was the next witness called, but he stated he was content with the submissions made by his colleague.

NEW AUSTRALIA DEFENCE PLANS

Canadian Press

Melbourne, Australia, June 20.—A meeting yesterday of the commonwealth council on defence was believed to-day to be a prelude to launching by Australia of new defence measures and commitments in close co-operation with the United Kingdom and other Dominions.

It was believed these commitments included a plan to establish in each Dominion a permanent defence council and provision each Dominion would arrange its local defence as far as its finances would permit. It was said individual policies would be evolved so they could be co-ordinated with those of other parts of the empire.

It was understood here Australia's defence plans would be linked closely with those of Singapore, site of the great naval base, on account of the strategic importance of the base to Australia.

New Bishop To Be Installed June 29

Day will begin at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

The order of the service will be as follows:

The diocesan clergy and a delegation of clergy from the mainland will assemble in the narthex to robe, and then proceed to the baptistry to await the procession.

The choir followed by the cathedral chapter, will begin the procession from the clergy vestry. They will be joined by the clergy assembled in the baptistry.

When the choir, chapter and clergy have taken their seats in the chancel and have the hymn "Christ is Gone Up, Yet We Have Passed" will be sung. During the singing of this hymn the episcopal procession will make its way from the clergy vestry to the sanctuary.

The procession will be made up as follows: Bishop George Anderson Wells of the Cariboo, Bishop George Exton Lloyd, formerly of Saskatchewan; Bishop Walter Robert Adams of Kootenay; E. E. Wootton, registrar of the diocese; Lindsay Cress, K.C., chancellor of the diocese; the Bishop of Spokane, Bishop S. Arthur Huston of Olympia, and Bishop C. D. Schofield.

Bishop Schofield, acting for Archbishop de Penier, will begin the communion service. The epistle will be read by the Bishop of Spokane, and the gospel by the Bishop of Olympia. Immediately following the recitation of the Nicene creed the sermon will be delivered by the Bishop of Kootenay.

Following the sermon the hymn, "Jesus, Wherever Thy People Meet," will be sung.

The Bishop of the Cariboo and Bishop Lloyd will then present the bishop-elect to Bishop Schofield. The chancellor of the diocese will read the record of the election of the bishop-elect by the synod of the diocese and also the certificate of Archbishop de Penier, metropolitan of the ecclesiastical province, commissioning the Bishop of Columbia to perform the consecration.

The Deacon of Columbia, Very Rev. C. D. Quinlan, will recite the Litany, following which the questions contained in the service of consecration of bishops as laid down in the Prayer Book will be put to the bishop-elect. The bishop-elect will then retire to don the rest of his episcopal robes. Meanwhile the choir will sing Mendelssohn's anthem, "How Lovely Are the Messengers."

On the return of the bishop-elect the anthem "Veni, Creator Spiritus" will be sung, the bishops and congregation singing alternate lines.

ACT OF CONSECRATION

While the congregation is still kneeling the act of consecration will be performed by Bishop Schofield, together with the other bishops, who will lay their hands on the head of the bishop-elect kneeling before them.

Following the consecration the Bishop of Columbia will deliver to the new bishop the Bible, with the exhortation to "Olive head unto reading, exhortation and doctrine, to be a shepherd of Christ's flock, to minister the sacraments, and to be a faithful and obedient servant of the church."

After the ceremony the hymn "Hark the Sound of Holy Voices" will be sung, during which the collection will be taken for the missionary apportionments of the diocese.

Following the giving of alms the Bishop of Columbia will continue the communion service, administering the sacrament to the bishops, clergy, and personal friends of the new Bishop.

Following the blessing the hymn

"All For Jesus" and the psalm "O Praise God in His Holiness" will be sung.

The procession will then retire, with the new Bishop-Coadjutor walking beside the Bishop of Kootenay.

A celebration of Holy Communion, followed by morning service, will be held at 4 o'clock Saturday morning as part of the consecration ceremony.

The new bishop-coadjutor will be the guest of Bishop Schofield and the layman's committee of the diocese in the Memorial Hall. The bishops, clergy and representatives of the laity will also attend.

It is hoped that Bishop Schofield will install the bishop-coadjutor at the morning service at the cathedral on the following day.

Drivers on trucks less than 3,000 pounds, 54-hour week, 35 cents an hour up to 50 hours, 32½ cents an hour over that; 40 cents an hour for those working less than 40 hours a week.

Motorcycle operators, 48-hour week, 35 cents an hour, 30 cents an hour for those working less than 40 hours a week.

Bicycle riders and foot messengers employed exclusively in that work, 48-hour week, 17 cents an hour, 20 cents an hour for those working less than 40 hours a week.

Swampers and helpers, 54-hour week, 35 cents an hour up to 50 hours, and 32½ cents over 50 hours; 40 cents an hour for those working less than 40 hours.

Drivers of retail milk and bread trucks and horse-drawn vehicles, 63 hours a week, provided they get one week off in seven, or its equivalent, and not more than 10 hours a day; 40 cents an hour.

Where an employee provides his own vehicle the employer must pay him "reasonable costs." Employers must furnish uniforms if they wish employees to wear them, and must pay employees in time when they are waiting on call for employment.

No differentiation is made between those under and over twenty-one years of age, the order covering all ages.

The schedule will go into effect July 4.

NO RELIEF FOR MEN ON STRIKE

Canadian Press

Vancouver, June 20.—City relief will not be granted striking waterfront workers or their families, the Vancouver City Council decided to-day.

Ald. L. D. MacDonald, relief chairman, reported several applications for assistance had been received from families of men on strike.

Mayor G. G. McEwen, warned the council such expenditure would not be sustained by federal and provincial governments.

"This is not a labor union matter but a straight revolutionary issue," he declared. "It is a case of a group of men trying to tie up the business of the port and the city. Men who have left their jobs and are free to return have no right to expect the city to allow them to go on relief. The city has no right to spend money to subsidize a revolutionary effort."

Britain Moves For Wider Naval Treaty

Views Differ On Reform Possibilities

"AGE OF LAWLESSNESS"

If the people were to be induced to believe Parliament might do things beyond the constitution, the age of lawlessness was at hand, Mr. Bennett said.

Development of fascism in European countries had started in just that way, said Mr. Bennett. First there was concern for the small man, then disregard of constitutional safeguards, and finally absolute power vested in a dictatorship.

The two Conservative privy councillors clashed on the third reading of the bill to establish a Dominion trade and industry commission. The last speaker at yesterday's sitting was J. S. Woodsworth, C.P.R. leader, who adjourned the debate till to-day.

SAYS POWERS TOO NARROW

Mr. Stevens complained because the bill did not clothe the proposed trade and industry commission with powers to regulate business as the price spread commission had proposed. He recalled Mr. Bennett's radio speeches in which he dealt with business abuses and said the report of the price spread commission would be implemented.

The laws introduced by the government, Mr. Stevens said, "do not do justice to the Prime Minister's utterances."

Had the new livestock bill been drawn up by the packing companies themselves it could not have been more favorable to them, said Mr. Stevens.

The Criminal Code amendments were lame and useless, said Mr. Stevens. They had not introduced with an apology by Minister of Justice Hugh Guthrie as possibly unconstitutional.

The amendments to the Companies Act were in about the same position. Every member of the House knew, Mr. Stevens said, the chairman of the Tariff Board had too much to do to perform his own duties and those of a trade and industrial board.

The bill provides the Tariff Board shall act as that, he said.

TRADE AND INDUSTRY BOARD

Mr. Stevens said the Conservatives came into power with a large majority. It was not their province now to talk about the earlier Liberal regime. The question "we have to ask ourselves is, have we been true to our trust?"

The problems of Canada were not solved.

"What have we done about unemployment?" asked Mr. Stevens.

What have we done about high interest rates, or about the weight of debt?

CRISIS NEXT WINTER

He predicted next winter Canada would be confronted with the most serious crisis in the history of wheat marketing.

The House of Commons came into office five years ago, Mr. Stevens said, but every time a domestic problem was discussed, learned disquisitions on constitutional law were given.

"If Parliament," he said, "is to be handicapped by the B.N.A. Act, then for Heaven's sake let us attack that piece of legislation."

At the election, Mr. Stevens warned, the people would demand to know why nothing had been done except "talk about the B.N.A. Act, which is wholly inadequate to meet the situation."

"THE UNKNOWN LIMIT"

Frederic Bennett, who followed Mr. Stevens, declared he stood by what he had said in the radio speeches. When he made them he did not know the commission, with the aid of which the government was trying to recommendations which were illegal. In consequence he had gone to the utmost limit of the Dominion's powers to carry out his program, he said, but refused to go farther.

Because the Board of Commerce Act and the Combines Act of 1919 had been declared invalid, Parliament was now being asked to reenact some of the provisions, but the government had profited by the experience of sixteen years and had learned that a bill which was believed would stand a test in the courts.

COURTS POINT OUT LIMITS

It was not open to Parliament to make a thing a crime merely because it chose to do so, said Mr. Bennett. The courts had definitely said that and Mr. Stevens had himself argued to this effect in the House in 1923.

"To the limit of the power of Parliament," the Prime Minister said, "we have invited Parliament to give redress within our competence."

It was so, said Mr. Bennett, that for anyone to say he had "made a crime" without realizing the law.

WOULD REPEAL MOVES

As far as financial policy and monetary stabilization were concerned, said Mr. Bennett, he had definitely said that financial affairs during the past five years again he would do it in the same way.

"When they say the printing press and mangle the money," he went on, "my answer is I am not prepared to do it."

Mr. Bennett repeated his assertion Canada would never become a "welfare state" on its obligations. It would be the ruin of the country if the public credit was shattered, and this referred to public and provincial debts as well as Dominion.

WOODWORTH'S VIEWS

The bills designed to implement the report of the price spread commission were no use, said J. S. Woodsworth, Winnipeg, C.P.R. leader, who had begun to make the problems confronting the country.

The Prime Minister was talking nonsense, he said, in charge of the defence investigation of the kidnapping since Hauptmann's conviction, said his investigators were following clues "almost certain to lead to the kidnappers."

"If the appeal fails," Mr. Werner said, "I am confident Hauptmann will go free eventually on new evidence."

Hauptmann said if a new trial was granted he would name two men who stole a letter and two application forms from his pockets. He believed they copied his handwriting from there in writing the ransom notes.

Premier Baldwin Tells Commons Anglo-German Accord Intended to Lead to Pact Embracing Others

London, June 20.—Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin assured the House of Commons to-day the Anglo-German naval accord is the "point of departure" for the ultimate conclusion of a general naval treaty.

"The agreement which has been reached," he told the House, "furnishes a fixed point of departure for further discussions with other powers and does not alter this final object of the discussions, namely, the ultimate conclusion of a general naval treaty."

Discussion of the naval agreement, by which Britain conceded to the Reich a navy 35 per cent its own tonnage, was launched by Edward Williams, Labor member.

By GEORGE HAMILTON
Canadian Press Staff Writer
London, June 20.—Hon. Anthony Eden, Britain's messenger of peace, will leave late to-day for Paris. He will touch there to-morrow with the French Premier and Foreign Minister.

The Minister for League of Nations Affairs goes on a double mission. He will endeavor to soothe the ruffled French spirits over the Anglo-German naval pact by explaining its intent and purpose. At the same time, he will make a dash for the German situation. In particular he will seek the views of the French government on the next steps to be taken for western European air pact.

Mr. Eden also expects to discuss with M. Laval the bearing of the Franco-Soviet mutual assistance treaty on the proposed air pact.

Discussions in London
British and German naval experts continued their discussions to-day.

Britain was still hopeful for an international agreement to reduce sizes of warships and to restrict drastically the number of submarines.

An authoritative source disclosed concessions made to Germany in their new naval agreement did not sever Great Britain from these objectives, and it was understood the Reich would give wholehearted support to the programme.

TALKS WITH PREMIER

Joseph von Ribbentrop, Reich-Chancellor Adolf Hitler's personal secretary, was received in his official capacity for the first time to-day by Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin.

They were understood to have discussed the British draft for a five-power air pact and the prospects for early conclusion of such an agreement.

FRANCE TO BUILD

Paris, June 20.—French officials said privately to-day that France intends to meet Germany's naval challenge by strengthening France's fleet "as much as necessary."

The officials concerned said they considered the Washington Naval Treaty of 1922 has ceased to apply, and that France's "hands are free" and that Great Britain has violated the spirit of the treaty.

The Washington accord—and that, therefore, France is no longer bound.

The government view, as reflected in a secret meeting of the Chamber of Deputies, was that France must build a fleet to meet the German challenge.

Reports arriving at this capital from remote parts of the empire said the entire nation is enraged by a belief that Italy covets Ethiopian territory and is preparing for aggression.

Taking for granted an Italian invasion as soon as the rains cease in the fall, the tribes were reported rallying to defend the borders.

Talk of war was heard constantly with a majority of Ethiopians convinced the Italians will suffer a defeat similar to that at Adua where the Italian army of 10,000 men, though ill-armed and ill-equipped, crushed an Italian expeditionary force of 15,000 on March 1, 1896.

APPEAL TO LEAGUE

Geneva, June 20.—Ethiopia to-day appealed again to the League of Nations against Italy.

The African empire's communications article 10 of the League of Nations covenant which members of the League are pledged to respect the territorial integrity of other nations. Ethiopia suggested a neutral commission be sent to the frontier of Ethiopia, where Italy claims anti-Italian incidents have taken place, to examine the situation and report to Geneva.

A previous appeal by Ethiopia was made under article 15 of the covenant, providing for the settlement of international disputes by arbitration. Rome, June 20 (Associated Press).—An authoritative source stated to-night that Italy will resign from the League of Nations if the League Council interferes in the Italian-Ethiopian controversy on the basis of the protest sent Geneva to-day by Ethiopia.

FRANCE'S ATTITUDE

Paris, June 20.—Premier Pierre Laval spoke before the Foreign Affairs committee of the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, said France would do "everything possible" to help settle the death of Hauptmann, "in case the situation becomes grave."

He denied the existence of any secret agreement between France and Italy giving the latter a free hand in Ethiopia, and read telegrams from Ethiopian officials thanking the French government for its efforts at Geneva to settle the dispute.

RENEWED PEACE EFFORTS URGED

Canadian Press
London, June 20.—Hon. J. H. Thomas, Secretary for the Dominions, to-day told the House of Commons that in discussions here last month with government heads from elsewhere in the empire on foreign affairs and empire defence, no attempt was made to ask any premier minister to bind his government.

He said the Dominions declared the government must continue its efforts for peace and keep in mind the value of the League of Nations as an instrument likely to bring that about.

DIONNE TELLS OF "MISTAKES"

Says Ontario Minister Expressed Regret Quintuplets Guardianship Act Passed

Canadian Press
Callander, Ont., June 20.—Hon. David A. Croil admitted to him on May 28 that passing by the Ontario Legislature of the act making the Dionne quintuplets wards of the King was a mistake, Olive Dionne, father of the babies, said here to-day.

He was commenting on the publication yesterday by the Ontario Minister of Welfare of an exchange of correspondence with Leo Kery, Dionne's manager, and the terms of an offer made to the Dionnes to bring their family under one roof.

"We all make mistakes," Dionne quoted the minister as saying in an interview here on the babies' first birthday. "You made yours in signing that Chicago contract, and I made mine in passing that bill through the Legislature. Let us forget all that, make a settlement and start all over again."

Dionne said he had refused the offer of the minister to build the family a new home.

ETHIOPIANS RALLY TO FLAG

NO AGE LIMIT

The Emperor's call for voluntary enlistment placed no restriction on age. Elderly men were preferred, being considered more accustomed to the hardships of a rugged outdoor life.

What they lack in skill in handling machine guns and other implements of modern warfare, the native warriors make up in the fierceness with which they wield sabres.

Some 100,000 of the 600,000 men estimated to be available for the field rally almost entirely on the same and use it with devastating effect at close quarters—where the Ethiopian prefers to fight.

Reports arriving at this capital from remote parts of the empire said the entire nation is enraged by a belief that Italy covets Ethiopian territory and is preparing for aggression.

Taking for granted an Italian invasion as soon as the rains cease in the fall, the tribes were reported rallying to defend the borders.

Farm Production In Province Shows $3,000,000 Increase

Increase in quantity was 16.47 per cent and in value 13.5 per cent.

The apple crop alone was valued at $4,841,740, a gain of $214,000 over the 1933 crop.

Vegetable crops, while showing a decrease from 56,234 to 54,935 bushels in volume, increased in total value from $1,989,360 to $2,060,700 due to better prices.

Tomatoes provided most of the advance, the outdoor variety showing an increase from 330,730 to 444,708 in a gain in production from 17,517 tons to 19,381 tons.

Average sown in field crops was 1,600 acres, reaching a total of 244,200 acres.

BETTER WHEAT YIELD

Wheat production was higher with a better yield per acre. Total is estimated at 1,397,000 bushels from 58,700 acres, a yield of 23.8 bushels compared with 1,317,000 bushels

Ottawa, June 20.—Tariffs on imports of carrots and beets are effective as from Tuesday, according to a bulletin issued by Hon. R. C. Matthews, Minister of National Revenue. The tariffs take the form of enhanced valuations for duty purposes.

With regard to carrots, the valuation is fixed at an advance of 2½ cents a pound above the true invoice value, and two cents a pound for beets. At the same time the minister announced imposition of a regional tariff, applicable to Manitoba and western Canada, on cauliflower, cabbage and green peas. This will operate in a similar manner. The advance above the true invoice value of cauliflower will be 4 cents a pound, of cabbage 2½ cents and green peas 2½ cents a pound.

Water Diversion
Adds To Costs

Senators Say Chicago Canal
May Cause Heavy Canadian Outlays

Ottawa, June 20.—Repeated suggestions water diversion from Lake Michigan by way of the Chicago drainage canal was a contributing factor to the low water problem in Montreal harbor and the St. Lawrence River channel, which may cost Canada millions of dollars, were heard yesterday in the Senate. The feeling was voiced from both sides of the chamber.

"There is no question that much of the low water problem we have in Canada is due to the Chicago diversion," Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Government leader in the Senate, stated. He had no special information to disclose on the situation. The government was mindful of the condition and $3,500,000 had been appropriated for Montreal harbor improvement and deepening under the public works programme bill.

Second reading was given to the bill to set up a $82,000,000 exchange fund to rescue the Canadian dollar in the event of wide fluctuations in the value of the dollar. It was sent to the banking and commerce committee.

The measure amending the Livestock and Livestock Products Act, based on recommendations of the price spreads commission, also went through final reading. Another bill to pass the final stage was one authorizing raising of loans not to exceed $750,000,000.

J. P. MORGAN IN SUIT ON WILL

Quincy, Mass., June 20.—J. Pierpont Morgan, New York financier, and his son, Henry B. Morgan of Manchester-by-the-Sea, were served with a writ here yesterday by Deputy U.S. Marshal Charles A. Keane while they watched the launching of the $10,000,000 U.S. cruiser Quincy.

The writ was issued late yesterday in federal court at Boston and was said to concern a $500,000 civil suit in action in court.

Joseph N. Welch, Boston attorney, obtained the writ on behalf of Thomas T. Snow, executor of the will of his father, the late Frederick E. Snow. Although Welch declined to discuss the will he said he would file a bill of declaration within three months.

New Cash Relief
Payment Scheme

Calgary, June 20.—Inauguration of a system of cash relief for all able-bodied married unemployed relief recipients in Calgary who are willing to work has been recommended to the relief committee by Mayor Andrew Davidson.

If the plan is adopted, the mayor proposes to finance the scheme with the $250,000 recently secured from the federal government. The money will be available July 1.

Relief workers would be paid at the rate of forty-five cents an hour for work on civic projects. Relief men unable to work would continue to receive relief by way of the voucher system.

Italy's New Duty
Affects Canadians

Ottawa, June 20.—On the basis of the last fiscal year's exports, the new 3 per cent ad valorem import tax which, according to Rome dispatches, Italy has now imposed will affect Canadians to the extent of $108,000 a year.

Canadian exports to Italy last fiscal year had a value of $3,630,030. Wheat, nickel, copper and dried codfish made up the bulk of exports from this country. The value of the wheat amounted to $1,097,000; nickel exports were valued at $666,000; copper, $469,000; dried codfish, $481,000. Other exports included woodpulp, $234,000; rubber tires, $149,000; upper leather, $33,000, and sausage casings, $21,000.

Cariboo Ranches
Supply New Demand

Williams Lake, B.C., June 20.—The depression seems to be practically over for ranchmen of Cariboo district and many of them have hopes of paying up back taxes on their property, some of which are five years in arrears.

There is a greater demand for nearly all farm products than the farmers can supply and prices are nearly double those of last year.

U.S. Stamp of 1861
Is Sold For $2,593

London, June 20.—A twelve-cent 1861 United States stamp of romantic history brought £235 (about $2,593) at an auction at Harpers, Bond Street, yesterday. The stamp was smuggled out of Russia by its owner, Prince Oldenbourg, who stitched it into the lining of his coat.

Apparently forgetting about the stamp, the prince gave the coat to an impoverished countryman who, in having the coat turned, discovered the stamp. Eventually it found its way to the auction house.

BOY RESCUED
Guelph, Ont., June 20.—(Canadian Press)—Plunging into flood waters of the Speed River below Gow's Dam, Thomas Kostal yesterday saved the life of Allan Brown, ten. The boy had been carried over the dam and was being taken down the swollen stream when Kostal saw his feet sticking out of the water.

Conservatives

Ottawa, June 20.—Definite assurance only a breakdown in health would prevent him continuing as leader of the government was given by Prime Minister R. B. Bennett at a complimentary banquet tendered him by Conservative members of the House of Commons and Senate yesterday evening.

It had been expected Mr. Bennett would take the occasion to convey to his parliamentary colleagues some intimation of his intention with respect to the leadership in view of the anxiety created by his recent illness. The banquet was private and the guests included only members of Parliament who supported the government.

The banquet yesterday evening was the first occasion on which the Prime Minister has met his colleagues in a body outside the House of Commons since his illness. No cautions have been held since his return to active participation in parliamentary affairs.

RELATIVE OF PREMIER WINS

Miss Grace B. Pattullo
Awarded Free Trip to Australia

Toronto, June 19.—Grace B. Pattullo, eighteen-year-old student at Eastwood High School, Edmonton, wins the free trip to Australia offered for the best essay on that country by a Canadian High School student. Announcement of the awards was made here today by L. R. Macgregor, Australian Trade Commissioner to Canada.

The $50 prizes offered for the best essays from each of the other provinces include:

British Columbia (tie), Grace Walton, North Vancouver, and Marcelle A. Jabour, Prince Rupert; Saskatchewan, Margaret McGregor, Nutana Collegiate.

Miss Pattullo, the all-Canadian winner, is expected to accompany Hon. F. H. Stewart, M.P., and Mrs. Stewart to their home near Sydney, Australia, this autumn. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart are now in England, but will return via Canada. The winner's father is a second cousin of Hon. T. Duff Pattullo, Premier of British Columbia.

NEW SEAPLANE BASES

Paris, June 20.—(Associated Press).—Gen. Victor Denain, Minister of Air, yesterday announced France had decided to establish seaplane bases in her two colonies in the West Indies, Guadeloupe and Martinique.

VACATION
VOYAGE TO
Los Angeles
AND RETURN
with your berth and meals $62.00

on the SUPER SHIP
"H. F. ALEXANDER"

HERE'S a real vacation bargain made even more attractive when you go on the super ship "H. F. Alexander"—America's fastest and smartest coastwise liner. Longer than the average city block, the "H. F." has a fascinating atmosphere all her own. You notice this almost the minute you step across the gang plank. Everyone is doing something every minute. Some are promenading, playing deck games, dancing in the nice club. Some are getting what they want when they want it at the cocktail bar, and others just relaxing in a comfortable deck chair with a good book from the library. And remember, the low fare includes berth and meals—meals deliciously good—berths in modern staterooms with private telephones. Remember, that with all these distinctly unusual features, it costs no more to go on the super ship. Why not make your reservations today?

Social Security
Plan Is Voted

But U.S. Houses Must Decide If Private Pensions To Be Taxed

Washington, June 20.—Though President Roosevelt's gigantic social security programme has now passed both houses of Congress, one major controversy remains to be fought to a finish.

Brushing aside scattered cries of "unconstitutional" the Senate approved the bill yesterday, seventy-six to six, but before it did so it tacked on the Clark amendment—under which pension systems set up by private concerns would be exempt from the taxation provided in the measure.

So the bill now must be thrashed over in a conference of senators and representatives to see what shall be done about this and some other amendments.

GREAT EXPENDITURES
The bill, which contemplates eventual expenditures of $4,000,000,000 to $5,000,000,000 annually, would:

Offer $15 a month for each $15 contributed by states, for needy persons over sixty-five or needy blind.

Provide benefits of $10 to $85 in contributory old age pensions.

Offer $15 a month for each $15 contributed by states, for needy persons over sixty-five or needy blind.

Tax employers of four or more persons 1 per cent next year and 3 per cent by 1938, on their payrolls for unemployment insurance.

They would get credit for 90 per cent of this if paid into a state insurance system. States would determine benefits.

Provide for aid to dependent and crippled children, maternal and child health work, and other welfare efforts.

DEATH SENTENCE
FOR KIDNAPPER

Muskogee, Okla., June 20.—The first execution under the Lindbergh kidnapping law was decreed yesterday by Judge R. L. Williams, who sentenced Arthur Gooch, Texas and Oklahoma outlaw, to die Friday, September 13, for kidnapping two Paris, Tex., officers last November.

The death penalty was recommended by a jury at the close of Gooch's trial on the kidnapping charge.

British Bishop
Scores U.S. System

London, June 20.—A very attack on democracy in general, and the United States system of government in particular, was launched in the House of Lords yesterday by the Bishop of Exeter during debate on the Indian bill.

The seventy-two-year-old bishop, Gascoyne-Cecil (Lord William Gascoyne-Cecil, second son of the Third Marquess of Salisbury), contrasted democracy with the Mussolini and Hitler dictatorships in Italy and Germany, distinctly to the benefit of the latter.

Money-controlled politics and gangsters, he said, made the United States an exceedingly poor example for the Indian people who, under the provisions of the bill, would have a modified federal system of government.

He asserted he had seen men starving in Chicago while "just outside was the very fertile state of Illinois, where I think they were burning their crops because they could not sell them."

Big Increase In
Auto Sales in U.S.

San Francisco, June 20.—The "land office business" recorded by United States Pacific coast automobile dealers this year continued through May, with sales of passenger cars totaling 22,893 units in California, Oregon and Washington, compared with 14,448 last year.

Sales for the first five months were 107,454 cars, compared with 58,616 in the 1934 period—a gain of about 84 per cent.

PAY FOR ACTORS
AT REHEARSALS

New York, June 20.—For the first time in the history of the United States stage, actors are to be paid for rehearsals next season.

The Council of the Actors' Equity Association, which controls wages and hours, has adopted a resolution providing pay of $30 a week during rehearsals for senior members, those with more than two years' experience, and $15 a week for junior members, with less than two years' experience. Chorus girls will receive $15 a week.

Twenty-five Years Ago To-day

THE VICTORIA DAILY TIMES
June 20, 1910

(From The Times Files)

When the people of Cowichan set out to do anything they do it well. That has been the experience in the past, and the Spring Flower, Poultry, and Dog Show held at Duncan on Saturday was no exception to the general rule. The flower show especially was intensely interesting, particularly the roses and wild flower collections. Nearly all the tables had wild flowers interspersed in some way. The display of roses was good but perhaps the show was a little early for the best results.

In the Mayor afraid to submit these money by-laws which are now ready for the judgment of the people? That is something we should endeavor to find out. So spoke Alderman Hunter to The Times this morning. The by-laws being appropriation of the sum of $15,000 for the erection of three public conveniences, which was passed unanimously, and then there was the by-law all ready for the improvement of Dallas Road, an urgent necessity.

U. L. Parawse, C.E., and a crew of nineteen men, left on this afternoon's train for up-land points, having been dispatched by Messrs. MacKenzie and Mann to survey the country for favorable railway routes for the Canadian Northern.

Wattle's coats, which most of the ball fans in this city thought had been broken in, will have to undergo this same ordeal once more, as a result of the pitiful showings made against the Seattle Spirits. Saturday's game between these two teams was a repetition of the previous one on Friday night, the score being 15 runs to 2 in favor of the Sound aggregation.

The new steamer Venture leaves to-night for northern British Columbia ports on her initial run, calling at Campbell River, Alsea Bay, Rivers Inlet, Bella Coola, Skeena River points, Prince Rupert, Naas and Stewart. When she pulls out to-night she will be one of the finest steamers afloat.

Mrs. Hilton has returned from a visit to Montreal, where she has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. D. Gratton.

MORE HELP TO BE EMPLOYED

Duncan Hospital to Raise Private Room Rates to Meet Added Cost

Special to The Times

Duncan, June 20.—The monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Duncan Hospital was held Monday.

The financial report showed a total revenue of $6,602.11, and expenditure of $4,849.80 for the month. Cash receipts were $5,252.05. The total day's treatment was 1,962, a daily average of 63.3.

To comply with the minimum wage and hours of work regulations, the hospital will engage more engineers, and the finance committee recommended that the rate for private rooms be increased from $4 to $4.50 per day as a means of obtaining extra revenue to offset the extra expense.

The necessary sum of $1,000 for the repayment of the instalment due on the mortgage is now in the bank, as a result of a drive undertaken by the Hospital W.A.

The building committee reported on improvements to the buildings, and recommended that the remodeling of the men's ward should be the first work undertaken. This will be done as soon as practicable.

A request of the city council that the board make provision for more parking space within their property will be met.

RAILWAY EARNINGS

Montreal, June 20.—Gross revenues of the Canadian National Railway for the week ending June 14, 1935, were $3,153,147 as compared with $3,144,077 for the corresponding period of 1934, an increase of $9,140.

FRED. LANDSBERG'S LAST WORD

By DAVID GRIEVE TUCKWELL

DECK NOT MY SEPULCHRE, I pray,
With floral emblems of your grief;
As wearied with laborious day,
I seek in slumber calm relief.
The work that I have tried to do
With such frail hands, will yet go on,
If, as I pass it on to you,
I hear your pledge: "It shall be done!"

Those victims of the world's fierce stress,
Who've fallen stricken by the road,
Need helping hands in their distress,
To lift the burden of their load.
If fragrant you'd my memory keep,
Drench not my grave with useless tears;
Take up my task, and you shall reap
Rich harvest through the coming years.

This be my last request to you,
As unattended, unaided,
I seek Death's kindly rendezvous,
In my dear Mother Earth am laid.
Those aged warriors in life's fight—
Stretch out a friendly hand to them,
And let their eventide be light:
Their thanks shall be my requiem.

1010 Fairfield Road, Victoria.

Magistrate Offers Rebuke

Objects to Counsel's Charge of Discrimination

G. Pail Singh, a Hindu, was fined $20 and $2.50 in the Provincial Police Court yesterday on a charge of driving to the common danger on the Island Highway.

Corporal J. McNaught testified he paced the accused on the Malahat at forty miles an hour. He said the accused and a Hindu woman were the only occupants of the car.

The accused testified he did not exceed thirty-five miles an hour and called Agent Singh, who claimed to have been a passenger in the car, to corroborate his testimony.

H. W. R. Moore, defence counsel, argued there was no case for a prosecution and submitted his client would not have been prosecuted if he had not been a Hindu.

Magistrate Jay told Mr. Moore he had no right to make such a remark since there were driving cases in the city court every day which were brought in without discrimination.

Mr. Moore intimated he would appeal the decision.

FEDERAL PAY LISTS

Ottawa, June 20 (Canadian Press).—Government pay lists in Ottawa alone for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1935, totaled $18,448,310, distributed among 11,482 employees. This compared with $21,358,261 during the fiscal year ended March 31, 1930, distributed among 12,912 workers, according to a return tabled in the House of Commons yesterday at the request of E. R. E. Chevrier, Liberal, Ottawa.

Southolm Crew Given Remand

Seamen Charged With Striking Appear in Provincial Police Court

Ten members of the crew of the Frank Waterhouse and Company ship Southolm were given a week's remand when they were brought before Magistrate Jay in the Provincial Police Court yesterday on charges of disobeying the lawful command of superior officers.

An eleventh man, Patrick Driscoll, charged with inciting the men to strike, was also remanded.

Application for the stay of the hearing was made for the men by A. J. Patton, defence counsel, who stated the defence required time to prepare its case and certain matters had to be taken up with Vancouver.

Sergeant Richard Harvey, prosecutor, and H. Davis, who appeared for the company, stated they would agree, but warned that it may be necessary to take another remand next week in the event of the ship not being here.

The annual exhibition of manual training work and domestic science in the Oak Bay schools will take place to-morrow in the Old Oak Bay High School, to which parents and persons interested are invited.

The display will take place from 2:15 to 5 o'clock, and tea will be served. A collection will be taken in aid of the Oak Bay Friendly Help.

Many Vacation Resorts On Great Saanich Highway

Elk Lake, Sidney, Deep Cove, Brentwood—Within Short Distance of Victoria

June days are happy days for warm sunshine and soft breezes tempt everyone out of doors. The long, lazy evenings, the longer hours of the week-end, or that, gale time, the yearly vacation sees a happy migration of pleasure seekers exploring Vancouver Island. Motor cars filled to overflowing, great buses with every seat taken, even the bicycle is pressed into service as everyone gets out in the open to enjoy June weather.

There are many roads to tempt the eager vacationist, many trails that lead to beauty spots all over the island but for a short few hours drive, a week-end, or, indeed, a longer vacation there is no road more fascinating than the highway that circles the Saanich Peninsula. There is so much to see—farm houses and summer resorts, lakes and huge inlets of the sea, fruit orchards, great fields of strawberries and the patchwork glory of seed farms in full bloom—the road leads on to something new and different. Starting leisurely from Victoria, it is only a question of minutes before the little town of Royal Oak is reached, where the highway forks into its two branches, the East and West Saanich Roads. It is a matter merely of preference which road to follow—the East Road goes up over a hill, the West Road crops gently down into a valley, but they both lead back in a long winding circle to this same starting point.

FRESH WATER BATHING
Soon after leaving Royal Oak the East Road borders the shores of beautiful Elk Lake, where is to be found some of the finest fresh water bathing and swimming on the island. Diving boards and floats are erected for the keener swimmer, while those who prefer to bathe and take a sun bath close to shore will find a clean, warm, sandy beach for their pleasure.

It is at Elk Lake, too, where the familiar sign of the Toby Jug swings before the door of "Hamsterley Lakeside," that visitors find those English countryside teas that are making this pleasant little hotel famous all over the continent. Truly, to taste Hamsterley's delicious biscuits, hot from the oven, and the thick, yellow Devonshire cream—unlike any other cream ever known—then at this season of the year to feast on fresh strawberries or raspberries smothered in cream, is to remember Hamsterley's English countryside teas and to return for more.

Beyond Saanichton and again on the East Road highway is the Dominion Experimental Farm. Here is everything that might possibly help the farmer in his long and arduous struggle with the soil, and at this particular season growth has almost reached perfection. The view from the Experimental Farm out over the islands of the Gulf is one of the finest views on the peninsula.

BEST AND HEALTH

Passing close to the little town of Sidney, the road swings out and around the end of the Saanich Peninsula. Little wooded bays and secluded inlets of the sea beckon to vacationists to linger and perhaps stay. In the waters of Shoal Harbor on a perfect miniature island connected with shore by a curved rustic bridge where huge shade trees lean close, is Resthaven.

What a name to tempt the weary, the sick, or the convalescent—a medical institution, where modern scientific treatment combines with healthful recreation and rest in the quiet peace of the great outdoors, Resthaven would restore anyone to health and happiness again. The big, rambling house looks out over a quiet bay. There are wide verandas and long windows, and a competent staff of trained attendants. This is, indeed, a convalescent and health resort unique of its kind and a perfect spot to recuperate and rest.

The East Road is about at an end. Beyond Swartz Bay, where it connects with the Salt Spring Island ferry, it merges with the West Saanich highway and swings back toward Deep Cove. Now the view is toward the beauty of the sunset and over the great Saanich Arm, an inlet of the sea that sunset, but not quite, turns the Saanich Peninsula into an island.

The whole of the Saanich arm, from Deep Cove to Brentwood, and beyond, is famous for its salmon and grise fishing. Ardent fishermen from far and near come to try their luck on this great body of water. From early spring to late fall boats of all kinds and descriptions follow the flash and sparkle of a fish's tail. Deep Cove is a charming spot to spend a vacation. There are tall trees that give a welcome shade and narrow trails to tempt those who wish to wander for a space on foot. The water is crystal clear along the shore and a joy to bathe; the fishing is an added attraction.

Wilsona Inn, right on the highway at Deep Cove, is a friendly little resort where it is possible to relax and give a welcome shade and narrow trails to tempt those who wish to wander for a space on foot. The water is crystal clear along the shore and a joy to bathe; the fishing is an added attraction.

It is with a sigh of regret the motorist leaves Deep Cove and goes on. Only for a moment though, for soon new vistas stretch ahead. There is the descent to the wide crescent of shining sand that marks Patricia Bay and the long, sloping hill to Mount Newton, where the oldest farming district in Saanich is located. When this is passed there comes the winding way that leads to Brentwood Bay.

and flowering shrubs in Brenta Lodge. Fishermen and summer vacationists alike find Brenta Lodge the perfect place for a holiday. The view from the verandas resembles a great mountain lake, with the Malahat and surrounding wooded heights in the distance. And the sunsets defy description. Brenta Lodge is also famous for the excellence of its meals—salmon dinners and lunches being a specialty. The Lodge is open all the year around and is truly called "the fisherman's Paradise."

From Brenta Lodge a road follows the shoreline through the very heart of the summer colony, to end almost in the grounds of the Anchorage, an up-to-date summer hotel where teas and light lunches are served. Miss Hazel Lamont, formerly of the Fireside Inn on the East Saanich highway, has taken over the Anchorage tearooms for the present season. She is planning many new and tasteful features that should make the tearooms a popular rendezvous for summer days. The Anchorage also has a large boathouse where it is possible to rent almost any type of boat. This season, Mr. Ford is offering the added attraction of the "drive-yourself launch."

TEMPTING TRAILS
Back on the main highway, the motorist takes his leisurely way until he comes to the road to Butchart's gardens. Again he will be tempted to digress, for the gardens in June present a scene famous the world over. Another side road, too, and one that will not be rested upon in an amazing series of spirals and curves. It leads to the very peak of Little Saanich mountain, where the Dominion Observatory is situated. The view from the top of the mountain on a clear day is well worth the extra time taken to make the ascent and the observatory itself will challenge anyone to a longer visit.

Perhaps it has only been a short few hours—again it may have been the longest week-end or a happier two-weeks' vacation. Whatever your hours of leisure, if they have been spent anywhere on the Saanich Peninsula, they have been pleasant and filled with experiences to be remembered and sampled again some other day.

NANOOSE BEACH POPULAR RESORT

Nanose Beach, ten miles north of Nanaimo, is part of beautiful Nanose Bay. It is an ideal health and holiday resort, combining healing sea air and restful surroundings. To make this setting perfect, Nanose Beach is served by Priestman's Resort, one of the most up-to-date and comfortable holiday spots on the whole of Vancouver Island.

The resort is situated on a gentle slope between the island highway and the sea. Few spots could boast a finer view than that to be had across the excellent sandy beach. Cozy furnished cottages of one, two and four rooms are scattered on the beach or under huge maple trees on the property. They are all equipped with natural gas for cooking and lighting. The larger cottages have water laid on and inside sanitation.

This ideal resort is open all the year round. There is a large playing field for children and exceptionally warm bathing. Priestman's is a splendid place to make a headquarters for exploring the upper part of the island—Cameron Lake, Mount Arrowsmith, Qualicum or even the Forbidden Plateau are all within easy reach of this fine resort. Best of all is Mr. Priestman's eager assurance that there are "no mosquitoes." Could one ask for a better place to spend a holiday.

ISLAND PLAYGROUNDS EASILY REACHED BY COACH LINES
The many beautiful resorts on Vancouver Island are made easily and cheaply accessible to those who either have no car, or who would rather be driven than drive, by the low fare bus excursions featured every week-end by the Vancouver Island Coach Lines.

This coming Sunday special trips are being run to Shawnigan Lake—by way of the cut-off road along the lake shore—and to Sooke Harbor and the newly reconstructed Courtenay Park. The excursion coaches leave the Broughton Street depot at 10 o'clock in the morning, returning early in the evening—thus giving an opportunity of spending the whole day at these popular playgrounds.

In addition to these excursions, a special mystery trip is being featured on Sunday next. The mystery coach will leave the depot at 10 o'clock in the morning, bound for an unknown destination.

SAY FAREWELL TO MINISTER

First United Church Honors
Rev. G. A. and Mrs. Boothroyd

Regret at their departure, combined with best wishes for their future, were the sentiments expressed by all present yesterday evening at the informal reception tendered Rev. G. A. Boothroyd and Mrs. Boothroyd.

The various organizations of the First United Church, including the session, the board of managers, the ladies' association, A. and B. group, Young People's Society, Missionary Society, Golden Link Missionary Society, Sunday school, Pas-a-Pas Girls' Group and the Choir, arranged the reception.

The affair was held in the Sunday schoolroom of the First United Church and W. T. Straith acted as chairman.

As the guests of honor entered the room the wedding march was played by Mr. Jack Smith. Mr. Harry Hay, Mrs. George Norris and Mr. Neil Perry contributed vocal solos, with Mrs. Clifford Wain and Mr. Jack Smith acting as accompanists.

On behalf of the young people of the church, an address was read by Mr. Ephraim Jones, in which was voiced the sincere regret felt by the younger members of the congregation at the departure of Mr. Boothroyd.

Mrs. Onisholm, president of the Women's Missionary Society, presented to Mr. and Mrs. Boothroyd a silver tea service and tray in recognition of their service to the church and on the occasion of their marriage.

Rev. Dr. W. G. Wilson spoke of the deep interest that Mr. Boothroyd had shown in all matters pertaining to the First United Church during his two years as assistant pastor at the church. Best wishes were extended by Dr. Wilson to Mr. and Mrs. Boothroyd in their new field at Barkerville where Mr. Boothroyd will be the first resident minister of the United Church of Canada. As a final ceremony a substantial cheque was given to Mr. and Mrs. Boothroyd.

Refreshments were served by the young ladies of the First United Church at the conclusion of the programme. Mr. and Mrs. Boothroyd left this afternoon on their way by motor to Barkerville.

Compartment Boxes Keep Drawers Neat

Early days of spring are fine for making good housekeeping resolutions. One of the first should be to buy the drawer compartment boxes that will transform your untidy bureau drawers into examples of neatness and precision. The boxes come with four compartments—so that you have a separate place for handkerchiefs, stockings, jewelry, or what have you—and no more scrambling.

The South American "cavendish" produces butter. It develops a thick layer of fat, which furnishes the Indians with a salad oil which they use as butter.

Never before was there such a season for flowers. From daisies to wall-paper the motif runs riot, with special emphasis on the large, brilliant-colored blooms of the tropics. Table linen for all meals is flowered and so are the plates and cups and saucers.

COLUMBIA W.A. VISITS MAYNE

Over 100 Diocesan Board Members Welcomed at Gulf Island Meeting

The Diocesan Board of Columbia W.A. met at Mayne Island on Wednesday, over 100 members attending. A warm welcome was accorded the board by Mrs. Foster and the members of her parochial branch, and following a short service in St. Mary's Church, luncheon was enjoyed on the lawn, followed by the business meeting.

The diocesan president, Lady Lake, who was in the chair, conveyed greetings from the bishop, and his request that as many members as possible attend the consecration of the co-adjutor bishop on Saturday, June 29, at 10.15 a.m. in Christ Church Cathedral.

Mrs. Dickson, convener of the Jubilee membership campaign, reported having addressed meetings at Langford and Crofton.

During the absence of the educational secretary, Mrs. Wilfrid Hartley has undertaken charge of the secular work of the W.A. library will be open on Monday, June 24, but is closed during the holidays, though books can be returned if desired.

Mrs. Hartley gave notice of the church girls' camp to be held at Sooke, August 2 to 11. Girls can register, or information be obtained from her, at $2.00.

Miss Checkley, junior secretary, asked members to reserve the date of July 17 when the juniors are visiting in an effort to raise their pledges. WON PRIZES

In the Dominion competition junior members of Columbia have won two second and one special prize, Kathleen Ross and Alden Vosper of St. Paul's, Esquimalt, and Audrey Hickling of Christ Church Cathedral Branch.

The secretary of the Church Embroidery Guild, Mrs. Greenway, showed a specimen of their exquisite work, a stole for Rev. Dr. T. E. Rowe, and read a letter of thanks for the hangings sent for the church at Anyon.

An appeal for an up-island church was met partly from the "extra-cent" fund, which Miss Evelyn Gwynne reported.

Mrs. Wilfrid Hartley was appointed delegate to the Dominion annual meeting in October.

Following a vote of thanks of the Mayne Island branch for their hospitality moved by Mrs. Pope, adjournment was made to the church, where Mrs. Applewhite addressed the members on the Jubilee membership campaign.

Bringing greetings from the Diocese is president, Mrs. Applewhite emphasized the need for every church woman to do her duty by influencing other women to join the missionary fellowship of the W.A.

To the many objections raised against missionary work, she pointed to the obvious in a very clear way. Only the Christian religion carries alleviation of suffering and poverty to other nations, she said.

Other religious degrade their womanhood and have no respect for human life and personality. That the teachings of Jesus find a response in every type of man is proof that it is inspired by the Holy Spirit, and opens a flood of light in every human heart, she maintained.

Your Baby and Mine
By MYRTLE MEYER ELDER

Some over-eager mothers are always alert for opportunities to instruct and advise their young. Just let the child make an innocent mistake in deportment and, lo, he is exposed to a flood of information about courtesy and mannerliness.

Such mothers at the first little question relative to sex, say to themselves, "Now—this is the moment for instructing the child about sex."

And they do, answering not only the child's casual immediate question, but everything which he might want to know during the next ten years.

"MOTHER HAVING"
Rudeness, lying, selfishness, all the traits the average child is sure at some time to exhibit, become for these women pegs upon which to hang advice, counsel, information and all adult wisdom.

Eventually the ears of their young are so filled with the sound of the maternal voice that they fail to absorb the meaning of it. The articulate adolescent says rudely, "It's just mother raving," and apparently is much the same.

ONE IDEA AT A TIME
All of us, children and adults, can make only a little of what we hear our very own. We can't learn all there is to know about any subject in one afternoon's lecture. We can discover that it is discourteous to contradict Mrs. White when she is talking. That's enough for the time being. Children assimilate ideas very rapidly if we don't confuse them by talking on and on about all the things children should not do in the presence of adults.

Sex information has to be administered a little at a time and this little repeated over and over again. It takes root only when at some miraculous moment information and experience merge. It may be years after the first information was given the child. It can't be finished off nobly and ably in one afternoon's gentle conversation.

Because there are so many things to tell children, some mothers prefer the torrent to the trickle, hoping that some of all the wealth of advice and information will stick. But children have their own defences against such methods. They turn on their tin ears and no impression can be made on them.

One bit of advice, given to fill a specific situation, will find a resting place in the child's understanding and will lay a foundation for more and more information put bit by bit upon it.

Bird's-eye view of a Venetian canal. That may be what this scene resembles, but it is really a picture taken during high tide on Manhattan's main street, and that does not mean Broadway. Poplar Avenue, principal thoroughfare of Manhattan, Kan., is shown under several feet of water after the nearby Kaw River had flooded. Damage done to the city's stores mounted to thousands of dollars.

TO FORECLOSE ON WOOL MILL

Worsted Co. $37,944.52 in Default on City Guaranteed $125,000 Bonds

Victoria city will soon have on its hands a completely equipped woolen mill, H. H. Shandley informed Mr. Justice Murphy of the Supreme Court yesterday.

As counsel for the Corporation of the City of Victoria, Mr. Shandley applied for the formal order for leave to commence foreclosure against the B.C. Worsted Mills Ltd., owner of the factory building and all its installed machinery and other equipment near Ogden Point docks.

Application to commence foreclosure had been previously approved by Registrar B. H. Tyrwhitt-Drake, it was explained.

Mr. Shandley said the move of the city to take over the whole property was based on the company's default on its $125,000 bond issue of October, 1928, which the city had guaranteed.

Facts on the case prepared by A. Macdonald, controller-treasurer of Victoria, were presented by Mr. Shandley to show that the late John Moore of Bradford, England, on November 20, 1927, sold the citizens of Victoria the idea of guaranteeing his proposed bond issue so he could finance, erect, equip and operate here a worsted mill. The machinery was brought from England by Mr. Moore and placed in the factory building erected here. The mill did not operate very long.

According to a statement presented by Mr. Macdonald, the company on May 1 last was default a total of $37,944.52 on the $125,000 bond issue. This total was made up of $26,028.01 interest and insurance premiums owing, and $11,916.51 due on sinking funds.

Joseph B. Clearhugh, counsel for the mill, said the company was willing to hand over the whole property to the city.

The Justice gave Mr. Shandley the order asked for.

DUNCAN ROSE SHOW

Duncan, June 20.—Some beautiful blooms were shown at the non-competitive rose show in the Agricultural Hall Tuesday afternoon. Some South African flowers, shown by H. A. Rhodes, Hillbank, attracted much attention. Those exhibiting were H. A. Rhodes, Matterson, Colonel Sheridan Rice, E. Burley, R. M. Palmer, Cowichan Bay; Burroughs, C. Wallich, Cowichan Station; R. and S. Crossland, T. L. Dunkley, C. H. Henniker, F. B. Carberry, G. H. Townsend, J. H. Fritchard, G. H. Radwen, K. W. Forward, Lady Smith, and others.

WHEAT SUPPLY

Ottawa, June 20 (Canadian Press).—Canadian wheat in store for the week ended June 14 amounted to 199,307,683 bushels, a decrease of 1,960,506 bushels compared with the previous week, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported to-day. This was, however, an increase of more than 2,500,000 bushels against the corresponding week last year when the visible supply was 198,826,258 bushels.

B.C. POWER CORPORATION

Montreal, June 20 (Canadian Press).—A decrease of $42,961 in operating expenses for May of British Columbia Power Corporation Limited as compared with the same period last year, was shown yesterday. Net operating expenses this year totaled $292,587 compared with $335,542 last year. Expenses for the elapsed eleven months of the fiscal year show an increase of $24,347, totaling $3,289,374 against $3,265,027 in May, 1934.

Johnson Denies Retirement Plan

Associated Press
Cleveland, June 20.—Walter Johnson, manager of the Cleveland Indians said today he does not intend to resign his post at the close of the present season.

His denial was prompted by published reports, not carried by the Associated Press, that he would retire from baseball in the fall.

FRIENDLY HELP WELFARE

To the Editor:—It seems a coincidence that Mr. Landsberg, ever the friend of the poor and oppressed, should have died just when the Friendly Help Welfare Association are trying to raise funds to enable them to continue functioning. Mr. Landsberg told me last fall, when they were trying hard to raise funds, that it broke his heart to see how indifferent the majority of people were to the needs of the poor. I have nothing to do with the Friendly Help Association, but I do know they do a tremendous lot of good, and that many families would be in a desperate position without their help. I know that nothing would have pleased Mr. Landsberg more than for this campaign to be a success. The association was very close to his heart, and I hope people will be generous and respond as he would have liked.

WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC

To the Editor:—The discussion in one of the civil courts, in the case of an appeal launched by a landlady or lessor convicted of living off the avails of the white slave traffic, indicates that the time has arrived in Victoria for a drive by the decent citizenry against this abominable state of affairs.

Mr. McGee in Vancouver has done wonderful work in an effort to clean up the plague spots over there. Through the police and frequently criticized for their toleration of these dens, people with young girls, living under the most sordid conditions, the officers of the law are not to blame for the responsibility for the existence of these places of iniquity, patronized by the lowest types of whites and Orientals. Lies, squabbles, and the agents who are out for big rentals irrespective of the terrible manner in which the money is earned to pay them.

Section 217 of the Criminal Code provides that anyone who owns, occupies or has the management or control of such premises is liable to be imprisoned for various terms from two to ten years if convicted.

Notorious houses of ill-fame have been running in this city for years and the owners and managers have always had full knowledge that they are common bawdy houses. Why have these gentry not been prosecuted?

BICYCLES IN THE CITY

To the Editor:—I see that a Chinese has been run down by a bicycle and killed. It is a miracle that this has not occurred often. I myself have been knocked down by a youth cycling in his eaves, with his eyes gazing everywhere but on the road before him, and the inane, vacuous expression on his face which so many of these cycling boys either affect or unconsciously catch from the popular movie cyclist.

I have several times during the past four years—at least ten times—seen these youths deliberately swerve after a Chinese crossing the road, track him laughing as he passes bewildered, and on two occasions bump into him with a loud offensive laugh, on one occasion knocking him down. This was an elderly Chinese, and I stopped to see if he were hurt. He told me that there was a gang of these boys who apparently were out to knock down and injure (not his way of putting it), and I asked him why he didn't complain to the police. He said "No number push-bike, no can tell, boy go heap quick, hit um down, gods away." To-day's hero may be the innocent exception.

Twice I have managed to stop one of these boys and talked to him, pointing out how cowardly and un-British his behavior was, and how silly, but his reply each time was "Wah wanta be British anyhow? Not me!" And something offensive and personal added to it. It is easy for such youths to "get away with it" in more senses than one, but would any decent youth, of any country, ever wish to do such things? In so many movies, cycling fools swerving about streets knock down innocent bystanders—that being apparently the producer's notion of humor or wit—and raucous laughter from crowds at the back (who always seem to have enough cash for these shows), invariably applaud the peculiar brand of amusement.

I think the next youth who runs down a Chinese, whether he succeeds in killing him or not, should be made such an example of that the rest will recognize the game is not worth the candle. Yates is a favorite arena for this sport—Beach Drive somewhere in killing him or not, should be made such an example of that the rest will recognize the game is not worth the candle.

June 13, Victoria. "CRIPPLE"

AMBULANCE CORPS

To the Editor:—Since my letter was inserted in your column, re The Formation of a Voluntary Ambulance Corps, I have spoken to many who believe that Victoria should have one, and by all appearances a strong one could be formed, comprised of qualified first aid ladies and gentlemen, and nurses. Such a corps would be entirely a civilian proposition, (insisting to do with the military or naval authorities) but a body, which would be rated as valuable to the general public. The needs of employers, organizers of meetings, and authorities could be fulfilled by application to the corps. Such ambulance corps in other parts of the British Empire, details its members for duty at all football matches, theatre, dance halls, meetings, and outside functions, such as carnivals and parades. It would also be a benefit to the general public. Greater Victoria and the tourists, to have a first aid person on duty at the week-ends, at our beaches, when so many of our tourists, by the members could be worked in relays. No fees would be expected from the members, nor would they be expected to bear expenses. So I appeal to all qualified first aid people and nurses to send me their names immediately, so that a corps could be formed, and if sufficient, to be called as soon as possible.

WHEAT CROP 93 PER CENT

Last Year's Figure Was 80 Per Cent of Normal, Searle Report Shows

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, June 20.—Condition of the Western Canada wheat crop as of June 14 was reported at 93 per cent of normal, according to advice received from 1,260 correspondents, in the Searle Grain Company's second 1935 crop report issued here yesterday.

At this time last year Searle reported conditions at 80 per cent of normal. Alberta this year was reported at 94 per cent of normal, the same as last year, Saskatchewan was reported at 92 per cent, compared with 77 last year, and Manitoba condition was 86, compared with 61 per cent in 1934.

In all three prairie provinces wheat was reported standing considerably better than at this time last year. Average height of wheat is about five inches in Alberta and Saskatchewan and six and one-half inches in Manitoba. The crop is about ten days later than normal.

A temporary agreement was reached to remain in effect until June 26, when efforts will be made to bring about a permanent settlement.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

INGREDIENTS ARE VARIABLE
By MARY E. DAGUE

On a roasting hot summer day can you imagine anything more delightful than to sit down to a meal of refreshingly cool dishes—accompanied by a chilled beverage or frozen dessert?

Deserts made with fruits appeal most, and of them all, strawberries have become the reliable standby since everbearing plants make them available until frost.

For luncheon the other day I served this frozen strawberry dessert with tiny cup cakes and cream. The recipe serves eight generously.

FROZEN STRAWBERRIES GEORGETTE
One quart strawberries, 1½ cups sugar, ½ cup boiling water, 1 pint whipping cream, ½ cup powdered sugar, ½ teaspoon vanilla, 1 teaspoon granulated gelatin, 2 tablespoons cold water.

Wash and hull berries. Combine granulated sugar and water and bring to the boiling point. Add berries and remove at once from the fire. Let stand two hours. I tried sprinkling half the berries with sugar and letting them stand two hours but these berries were icy after freezing. Those in the syrup had just as fresh a flavor but had absorbed enough sugar to prevent hard freezing. Soften gelatin in cold water and dissolve over hot water. Whip cream until firm. Stir in powdered sugar, dissolved gelatin and vanilla and beat a few seconds. Put prepared berries in freezing trays and cover with whipped cream. This amount will fill two trays. Freeze two hours or longer until firm. Unmold and garnish with fine large berries to serve.

To unmold a frozen dessert of this type run a spatula around the sides of the mold. Then put the platter or serving dish, which has been chilled, over the mold and invert. Put a hot towel over the bottom of the mold for a minute and the mold lifts off easily.

FRUITS INSTEAD OF BERRIES
Later in the season try peaches in place of strawberries in this recipe. The only thing to remember about using fruits in frozen mixtures is the necessity of saturating them with sugar, otherwise they will be frozen hard.

This is a particularly good dessert to serve with veal because veal is very low in fat calories. For dinner it goes good with hot bouillon and tiny noodles, breaded veal cutlets, buttered rice, creamed carrots, asparagus salad, frozen strawberries georgette, milk, coffee.

TO-MORROW'S MENU
Breakfast: Honeydew melon balls, cereal, cream, baked French toast, honey, milk, coffee.
Luncheon: Eggs a la King, endive salad with tomato dressing, coconut macaroons, grapefruit, breaded veal cutlets, hot bouillon, breaded veal cutlets, buttered rice, creamed carrots, asparagus salad, frozen strawberries georgette, milk, coffee.

Stories in STAMPS

By I. S. Klein

CENTER OF BIBLICAL LORE

REplete with memories of Biblical history are the stamps of Palestine, and none more so than the one shown below. It depicts a view of the Sea of Galilee, where Christ stilled the storm, where He walked upon the waters, and along whose shores He performed numerous miracles. To day this vast sea, which is visited by thousands of tourists annually from all parts of the world.

A peculiarity of the stamps of Palestine, as you will see by this example, is the fact that they are printed in three languages, representing as many powerful nationalities in that region. These languages are Arabic, English and Hebrew, the English name predominating, at the top, since Palestine is actually a British mandate.

NEW OFFICER TAKES OVER

Brigadier D. J. MacDonald Assumes Command at Work Point Barracks

Brigadier D. J. MacDonald, D.S.O., M.C., who has been commanding officer of the Lord Strathcona's Horse, to-day at Work Point Barracks took over command of Military District No. 11 from Major-General E. C. Ashton, who has been promoted to the office of chief of staff at Ottawa.

The new officer commanding here was graduated from the Royal Military College at Kingston in 1908. At the beginning of the war he was with the 29th Light Horse, went overseas in October, 1914, with Lord Strathcona's Horse, remaining with that unit during the war and becoming its commanding officer. During the war he was mentioned in dispatches three times and twice wounded.

After the war he was appointed to the permanent force, in various capacities, then as general staff officer of Military District No. 18 at Calgary from July, 1925, then from 1924 to 1927 general staff officer of M.D. No. 12 at Regina, then assistant adjutant and quartermaster-general of No. 18, until the end of 1934, when he was transferred to Ottawa.

Essay Winners Are Announced

Vancouver and Prince Rupert Girl Tie With Stories on Australia

Miss Grace Walton, a pupil of North Vancouver High School, and Miss Marcelle J. Jabour, who attends Prince Rupert High School, were the winners of the British Columbia prize in the goodwill competition conducted by the government of Australia for the best essay on "Australia," according to word reaching here. The two girls will divide evenly the cash award of $50 for their essays.

The feature prize, that of a free trip to Australia, for the best essay in Canada, was won by Miss Grace B. Pattullo, of Eastwood High School, Edmonton.

The competition was held last fall and eagerly participated in by high school students throughout the Dominion. The entries were reduced by educational authorities to four from each province, and the thirty-six from the nine provinces were judged by a committee, consisting of Sir Edward Beatty, chancellor of McGill University; J. W. Daffoe, editor of The Winnipeg Free Press; Georges Pelletier, managing director "Le Devoir," Montreal; Georges Bouchard, of Laval University, Montreal; Prof. J. P. Parkinson, University of Toronto; A. S. Ross, McGill University, and Miss Evelyn MacDonald, of the Canadian Teachers' Federation, Toronto.

The accompanying chart shows how the price of gasoline to the retailer has decreased and the gasoline tax has increased since 1924. The data for this graph are based on figures published by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

FALLING PRICES—RISING TAXES

IN 1924 the average price to the retailer of all gasoline sold in Canada was 26.6 cents per Imperial gallon. Since 1924 the price has fallen almost continuously and for 1933 and 1934 it stood at 18.8 cents—nearly eight cents less than in 1924.

"But," you say, "gasoline does not cost me eight cents less a gallon than ten years ago."

You are right, and this is why: In 1924 the gasoline tax was new in Canada and the total gasoline tax collected in that year amounted to an average of only a little more than ¼ of one cent for each gallon consumed. But as the price of gasoline fell the tax on gasoline rose to higher and higher levels until in 1933 it amounted to nearly 5½ cents for each gallon consumed in Canada.

When you buy a gallon of Imperial gasoline you also pay other taxes totaling about 8/10 of one cent. The profit which Imperial Oil earned on each gallon of gasoline that it made and sold during 1934 was just over 5/10 of one cent per Imperial gallon.

High School Credit In Music Foreseen

Festival Association Enthusiastically Behind Idea; P. A. Gibbs Re-elected

Intimation that the introduction of music as an optional subject in the high schools might not be far distant and unanimous support of the scheme were given at the annual meeting of the Victoria Musical Festival Association in the council chamber at the City Hall yesterday evening.

In moving a resolution strongly favoring the idea and pledging the association's support of it, Dr. Richard Felton pointed out the measure would not embarrass the provincial government in a material way, because it did not mean any added expense for the government.

Mention was made of the determined campaign of the Victoria Music Teachers' Association for a music course in the high schools, and the need was expressed for the festival group to help bring such pressure as possible to bear on the Department of Education. The resolution was seconded by Mrs. Hebdon Gillespie and passed with loud applause.

A passage in the presidential address, which expressed warm approval of the high school scheme, referred to the statement of Sir Henry Hadow to the effect that music, beside stirring the emotions through the pleasure it gave, was just as much a form of intellectual training and discipline as mathematics.

AGAIN PRESIDENT
P. A. Gibbs was re-elected president of the Victoria Musical Festival Association by acclamation, with practically all last year's officers returned. A new occupant of the post of corresponding secretary is Mrs. T. Hardy.

Those who were nominated to their posts by acclamation, in addition to Mr. Gibbs, included Dr. Felton, first vice-president; Mrs. W. H. Radbourne, second vice-president; P. C. Routley, third vice-president; Edward Parsons, treasurer, and Mrs. N. E. Fairweather, recording secretary. Seven were nominated for four positions on the board of directors. Mrs. Hebdon Gillespie, L. A. Gane and Harry May were given three-year terms. Mrs. Gillespie and Mr. Beckwith retain their positions on the board, and Mr. Gane returns after an absence. Mr. May is a newcomer to the city from Saskatoon, where he has had festival experience.

RESTIVAL DATES
The next festival will be earlier, it was indicated in Mr. Gibbs' report, which turned out to be one of the most carefully prepared reports ever submitted. The dates have been set for March 31 to April 4. Harold Samuel and Dr. Thomas Armstrong, both known and liked here through previous appearances, have been approached as two of the adjudicators for the 1936 festival.

The report of the president thanked George H. Deane, city school inspector, and Major Harold Hinton, physical instructor for the city schools, for their work in bringing the school rhythmic bands into the last festival. These bands were highly praised by Dr. Gordon Slater, the adjudicator, and the hope was expressed this work would be carried on and extended.

Mrs. Hebdon Gillespie was also thanked for her efforts in connection with the Beach instrumental ensemble class, which was setting an example to other festivals in Canada and even in Great Britain, Mr. Gibbs pointed out.

SUPPORT MAYOR
The president recommended that the association should support Mayor Leeming in his Tourist Trade Development Association plans, especially in their relation to the proposed new auditorium. Though it was felt there was at present something of a waste of effort because there were three different schemes involving three different types of auditorium, the report recommended that the festival body be keen to co-operate and compromise with all other groups interested in the construction of an auditorium.

Mayor Leeming was commended for his enthusiastic support of the festival.

The report went on to express regrets that the Oak Bay and Esquimalt schools had not entered the choral classes this year. It was hoped the dates next year would be found suitable by these districts.

The meagre attendance of parents for these same classes was also regretted, and the president stated the incoming executive would be asked to consider the question of special lower-priced parents' tickets for these classes.

Thinking generally the entries had been most satisfactory, this had not been so for the string events, the report continued. The new board would be asked to contact the music teachers on this subject of the work.

NEW HALL SUGGESTED
The question was also raised in the report concerning the making of the best use of the adjudicators' time. Rather than have two adjudicators judging jointly in one hall, as at present, it was felt there could be an arrangement whereby more time could be given the adjudicators for the voicing of their valuable and instructive remarks. For instance, another hall could be pressed into action, thus getting around the present "unconscious fear of additional rent."

The use of the Armories for the recent massed choir concert had suggested a consideration of this building for future festivals, the president observed.

Thanks were expressed to the reporters of The Times and The Colonist for their reports and also to "that kindly music critic, G. J. D." Mrs. W. H. Radbourne came in for special mention for her unstinting and continued work for the festival.

The finances had shown a deficit, owing to the reduced receipts of the first three days and to the cost of the hand competitions. It was felt the use of the Royal Victoria Theatre for the Saturday afternoon band concert was an experiment whose repetition was not warranted.

The president wound up his report with some observations on the importance of festivals and competition. Festival competition, he said, was a thing that must not be misunderstood. As Sir Waldo Davies had said, people who entered a festival should not be out to beat one another, but to pace one another on the road to excellence.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT
The treasurer's report of Mr. Parsons showed total receipts of $2,339.55, and disbursements of $3,208.53, as compared with total receipts at the 1934 festival of $3,181.37 and disbursements of $3,207.01. But the receipts this year included the sale of a bond for $498.35.

Admissions at the door this year were $276.58, the last year the figures being $297.95 to $1,274.23. The grant from the city was $10, the same as last year.

The report of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mitchell, stated there were 830 single entries, a choir or an ensemble counting as a single entry. A total of 273 certificates were given out and adjudicators' reports were bought by the contestants.

Mrs. N. E. Fairweather reported on the activities of the recording secretary.

H. A. Beckwith moved a resolution thanking Miss Barbara Fraser and the day-to-day accompanists selected by the Victoria Music Teachers' Association. W. H. Muncey seconded.

Mrs. Mitchell, the outgoing corresponding secretary, was thanked in a resolution moved by Oliver Stout and seconded by George J. Dyke.

SUGGESTIONS
Frank Smedley brought up three suggestions during the period at the close reserved for them. He thought the festival should be "talked more on the street." He believed this was being done in the early years of the festival. He also felt that the adjudicators under the leadership of George Dodds, in the last two years had set a great example in not making joking personal remarks about the competitors, and he thought they should be thanked for this attitude, which was fundamental not to discourage people from entering again.

There should be basses, not baritone, in the bass solo class, observed Mr. Smedley as laughter greeted this personal "problem."

Mrs. H. A. Beckwith suggested the hall manager or the contestant should announce the name of the selection being rendered in those classes where the programme could not carry the information. This was considered a worthwhile idea for the incoming executive.

With Miss Gwen Harper and George J. Dyke interpreting the attitude adopted by the Victoria Music Teachers' Association, the new board was entrusted to look into the matter of scholarships offered festival winners by a music-teaching institution.

Mrs. Radbourne pointed out the scholarship in question had been solicited by officials at the beginning of the festival movement, and Mr. Beckwith felt there was no real difficulty, that the donor would be quite willing to withdraw the scholarship. The way it worked out at present, Miss Harper said, was that a pupil, after being carefully and well-trained by his teacher, became good enough to win the scholarship, and was promptly lost to the teacher.

BUFFALO PUCK CLUB LEASED
Canadian Press
Buffalo, N.Y., June 20.—Frank B. Baird Jr., wealthy young owner of the Buffalo team in the International Hockey League, to-day announced he had leased the club to six men formerly interested in the club before Baird obtained control.

Baird's announcement came almost three months to a day after his threat to withdraw from the league because of a Syracuse-Cleveland game that eliminated Buffalo from last season's playoffs.

New owners of the club include George Stratton, Jack Lawson and Edward Johnston, all of Fort Erie, and Alex F. Dunn, S. V. E. Spaulding and S. Edgar Danahy, all of Buffalo.

JUDGE'S ATTACK BRINGS ACTION

Vancouver Mayor Invites Lawyer to Explain About Licensed Brothels

Mr. Justice McPhillips' attack from the bench last week which has resulted in orders being issued at the city hall to close three bawdy houses here is having repercussions in Vancouver.

The justice, referring to one of these houses, said it was "unbelievable" that the citizens of Victoria should sanction "the open operation of a three-story, twenty-room brothel in the middle of the city" with the city officials on the one hand licensing it as an approved rooming house, while on the other hand, other city officials, the police, were testifying in court in Vancouver that it was a public brothel.

E. A. Dickie, Vancouver lawyer, who was before the court handling the case for the prosecution against Eddie Fife, sentenced to two years on white slavery charges, interjected: "I agree with you, my lord; we have the same sort of thing going on in Vancouver."

Now Mayor McGee has invited Mr. Dickie to appear before the Vancouver police commission and tell what he knows about what is going on in that city.

In inviting Mr. Dickie to meet the police commission, the mayor has written to him in part as follows: "Since coming into this office and assuming the responsibilities of becoming chairman of the police commission I have tried to prevent that kind of thing going on in Vancouver. I have given instructions to the police and the license department that it must not be allowed. Needless to say, I have been informed that it is not continuing in this city."

"Your statement, I trust, was made upon some foundation of fact, and I am going to ask you to appear before the police commission at its next meeting, notice of which will be given to you, to give us the information upon which your statement in our Court of Appeal was made. In the meantime, if you have any information I shall be pleased to receive it and I will see that it is acted upon without delay."

the same sort of thing going on in Vancouver."

Now Mayor McGee has invited Mr. Dickie to appear before the Vancouver police commission and tell what he knows about what is going on in that city.

In inviting Mr. Dickie to meet the police commission, the mayor has written to him in part as follows: "Since coming into this office and assuming the responsibilities of becoming chairman of the police commission I have tried to prevent that kind of thing going on in Vancouver. I have given instructions to the police and the license department that it must not be allowed. Needless to say, I have been informed that it is not continuing in this city."

"Your statement, I trust, was made upon some foundation of fact, and I am going to ask you to appear before the police commission at its next meeting, notice of which will be given to you, to give us the information upon which your statement in our Court of Appeal was made. In the meantime, if you have any information I shall be pleased to receive it and I will see that it is acted upon without delay."

Ken Black and Stan Leonard Advance In Canadian Amateur

THE SPORTS MIRROR

PROVIDED plans of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club reach the conclusion, confidently expected by officials of that organization, Vitoch will see in action next month some of the finest amateur racquet wielders who have ever visited the city.

Berkley Bell, ranked in the first ten in the United States, was starting here July 22, but may be unable to make the trip owing to a previous engagement in Cincinnati. An older brother of Don Budge, one of this year's recruits to the United States District Cup team, John Murie, the outstanding Hawaiian, as well as the United States junior singles champion, are all expected to take in the Dominion tourney.

Dr. E. W. Book, leading figure in Pacific Northwest tennis, while unable to announce definitely participation of all those stars in the tourney, has very fair assurance they will be playing.

The touring tennis fraternity will open their northwest campaign in Portland shortly, going from there to Seattle, and thence to Vancouver before swinging across to Victoria and returning to Jericho and taking in the sectionals at Tacoma.

With that puckish touch, sports writers yesterday filed stories from the training camps of Primo Carnera and Joe Louis, training for a "near" title bout shortly.

The first story quoted the Man Mountain as saying he would knock Louis out in the sixth round. And then to make the item more entertaining, they reported Louis as saying he would put "De Freeman" away in the fifth.

Primo will now have to come back with a prediction to win in the fourth, which Louis will probably offset with a favorable knockout in the third. And when they have finished, according to mathematical reckoning, the fight will be so short it will not be worth seeing and that may be right.

According to Walter Fursey, the Washington Statesman, who has himself won quite a few pots in his time, Harry Given, Portland amateur, is as good as anybody in the Pacific Northwest. For instance, he can probably take "Scotty" Campbell, Seattle, twice Canadian amateur champion, four times out of five this deopster has it.

Both these golfers will be playing in the P.N.W. championship, which starts in Seattle next Monday. One of the best fields on record is entered this year. Two years ago, the tournament was held at the Victoria Golf Club, when Campbell defeated Alan Taylor, of the home club, in the final.

The golf pros these days are wishing they were amateurs. At a time when business, like most other businesses, is not what it was, the pros are watching the expenses more carefully. But, the lucky amateurs, if they are good players, continually tear from one end of the continent to the other and in all directions, frequently with expenses paid.

Steve Denoghe may be a veteran, but the famous jockey rode in three countries in forty hours recently and traveled nearly 700 miles. He rode at Gatwick on Saturday, in Belgium the following day and on Monday morning figured in early morning training gallop in Paris. That afternoon he was back in England.

A lot of amateur standers are at stake in Blenheim, Ont. The boys are playing in a softball league with some against "Tommy" Cook, professional hockey player for Chicago Black Hawks. It's all fun, but some of the boys fear Tommy's presence may queer their standing with the amateur people.

The real par of the Oakland golf course is not 72, but 74. That's what it should be, figures Tommy Armour, who won his only United States open title over Oakland eight years ago. Nobody got closer to par for 72 holes in the United States open this month than eleven strokes. Sam Parks accomplished that and he won.

Alan Wakelin, fourteen-year-old Walsall schoolboy international, has signed amateur forms for Aston Villa. He weighs 168 pounds, and stands five feet eight inches. He can play either in goal or at centre-forward.

Babe Didrikson, famous woman athlete and expert golfer, recently barred from amateur play by the U.S. Golf Association, predicts that it won't be long before there will be a U.S. National open for women golfers.

"I have one dream now," she states, "and that is to some day win the women's national golf championship. For there will be a national open for women in a few years."

Centre of polo in the United States is shifting from its birthplace, Long Beach, California, in the opinion of Tommy Hitchcock.

"With polo improving so rapidly in California, I would not be surprised if the Argentine, England, and maybe

J. M. WOOD IS "B" CHAMPION

Defeats G. Quincey in Final at Colwood Golf Club; Flights Decided

J. M. Wood won the B championship of the Colwood Golf Club as a result of his 2 and 1 victory over George Quincey in the final recently.

Previously, Wood had beaten T. H. Leeming, 3 and 2, and Quincey had taken the measure of J. S. Gow, 2 up.

Results follow:

CHAMPIONSHIP
Semi-finals
J. M. Wood won from T. H. Leeming, 3 and 2.
Geo. Quincey won from J. S. Gow, 2 up.

Final
J. M. Wood won from Geo. Quincey, 2 and 1.

FIRST FLIGHT

J. P. Land won from B. Waude, 3 and 2.
J. A. M. Knox won from W. P. Masters, by default.

Finals
J. A. M. Knox won from J. P. Land, 2 and 1.

SECOND FLIGHT
Finals
Dr. C. J. Coultas won from D. Sutherland.

MOORE LOSES

Somerville played the same steady golf he has shown all through the tourney. He was four up coming to the ninth but lost that hole, making the turn with a three-hole margin.

Somerville went one down to Moore at the second but squared it on the third. He took the lead on the fourth and took the next two holes to go three up. The seventh was halved in per four and Sandy took the eighth with a par three but was again only three up when Moore took the ninth in par four. On the home trip they halved the tenth, eleventh and twelfth. Sandy took the thirteenth, and the fifteenth, after halving the fourteenth.

Approximate cards:

Somerville 5 5 4 4 3 4 3 5-36
Moore 5 5 5 5 4 4 4 4-39

BLACK WINS

J. Watson Yulle, Montreal southpaw, lost an early lead on the outgoing nine and made the turn all square with Ken Black. Black went out in an approximate 37 against Yulle's 38. Yulle took the second and third holes, lost the fourth and took the fifth. The next two were halved, and Yulle conceded the eighth and Black took a birdie two. Black's carried four feet past the pin and Yulle could have done no better than a four. It is a par three hole, 155 yards.

Black-Yulle cards:
Out—
Black 4 5 5 4 4 4 2 4-37
Yulle 4 4 5 5 4 4 4 5-38

IN—
Black 3 4 3 4 4
Yulle 4 5 5 4 4 4

LOST ONLY TWO HOLES

Stan Leonard lost only two holes against Dan Kennedy. The Vancouver shotmaker dropped the second when he needed a five, but got it back on the third. He added another on the fourth, halved the fifth and moved two up at the sixth. The seventh also went to Leonard, but Kennedy took the short eighth with a par three and they halved the ninth. The next four after the turn were halved, but Leonard ran out the match on the next two holes with par fours.

The cards:
Leonard—Out 4 5 4 4 4 4 4 4-36
Kennedy—Out 4 4 5 4 4 4 5 4-38
Leonard—In 4 5 5 4 4
Kennedy—In 4 5 4 4 4

J. A. Macdonald, Edmonton, marched around the first nine against J. H. Chipman, Toronto, without losing a hole. He took the second, third, fourth and fifth in a row and made the turn four up. These halved the tenth and Chipman picked up on the eleventh. Mountfield took the twelfth with a birdie three.

The cards:
Mountfield—Out 5 5 4 5 4 4 4 4-42

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

Constantinople, now called Istanbul, is the only city in the world that is located on two continents. This Turkish city is located mostly on the European side of the Bosphorus, but it also extends over into the Asiatic territory of Turkey.

Amethyst, a violet or purple variety of quartz, used now as an ornamental stone, was of far greater value in ancient days than it is now. The name comes from two Greek words meaning "not to intoxicate" and it was firmly believed among the ancients that if you drank wine from a cup made of amethyst you would not become intoxicated.

The stone was about ten times as valuable in olden times as now, and it was widely used by the Egyptians for making amulets. To-day it is used for episcopal rings. Though amethyst is very widely distributed, there are comparatively few localities where good clear specimens can be found.

Strange as it seems, the conformation of the retina of the eye makes straight lines look curved, and curved lines look straight under some conditions. If you hold the checkerboard close to the face, look intently at the centre with one eye, then the whole area will appear to be a patchwork of uniform squares. This illusion is brought about by the fact that the eye itself is curved, and the outer black and white spaces in the circle impress the curved surface of the eye as being square.

Indians Move Up: Tigers Defeated

PLAN M'LARNIN CANZONERI GO

Lightweight King Prepared to Meet Vancouver Belter in Bout July 18

Associated Press

New York, June 20.—Tony Canzoneri, lightweight champion, yesterday agreed to terms to meet Jimmy McLarnin, former welterweight king, in an over-the-weight match in Madison Square Garden's Long Island City bowl, July 18. Jimmy Johnston, garden promoter, has not yet heard from Pop Foster, McLarnin's manager.

Johnston suggested terms to Foster, but Old "Pop" has not yet sent in his last word.

Canzoneri, one-time "bootblack" of New Orleans, won general recognition as lightweight king by upsetting Lou Ambers, of Herkimer, N.Y., here last month. The New York State Athletic Commission designated the bout as for the title after Barney Ross, of Chicago, abdicated rulership of the lightweights to make his subsequent successful bid for the welter championship then held by McLarnin.

If the meeting between McLarnin and the speedy Italian veteran is arranged, it will of necessity be an over-weight affair, due to the Canadian's poundage, and Canzoneri's title will not be at stake.

Undaunted by that setback, the Indians went on to slug a pair of former Canadian flingers, Jack Russell and Belve Bean, for seventeen hits, including a knockdown. Truisky's tenth and eleventh homers, and win the second game 10 to 5.

TIGERS LOSE PAIR

The Tigers attempted to make a similar comeback after taking a 13 to 3 drubbing from the Yankees in the opener, but after twelve exciting innings went down on all counts. The 7 to 6 defeat not only dropped them to fourth, but it ended Tommy Bridges' winning streak after nine straight mound victories.

Bridges and Vito Tamulis fought it out evenly until each team collected a seventh inning home run. Then Pat Malone finished for the Yanks and Bridges weakened in the twelfth when an error by Alvin Dark put the Yanks in position to score three times. The Tigers nearly salvaged the game even when Charley Gehring poked a homer and Hank Greenberg followed with another hit, but the season, but Goose Goslin could not finish the job.

BROWNS SPLIT BILL

The Red Sox and Browns divided the third game of the National League double bill, Boston winning 4 to 3, and 5 to 3, despite two homers by the ex-Bostonian Julius Farnsworth and one by Ed. Coleman, and the Browns taking the afterpiece 4 to 3 behind Sugar Cain's seven-hit flinging.

In the National League the Braves and Cubs split the only games that escaped a tenth inning. The Braves, who had been out of the race for some time, won 3 to 1, while the Cubs, who had been out of the race for some time, won 3 to 0 as Phil Cavarretta drove in all three Chicago runs.

Bain kept the other all National League clubs and the Chicago and Philadelphia American League idle, COAST LEAGUE

The Pacific Coast Baseball League is in an eight-way tie to-day for leadership of the young second half of the split season.

At a level of 500 they all looked alike from the perennial pace-setting Los Angeles Club to the Missions and the San Francisco Giants. Changes in managers of the Senators and Portland Ducks were credited with their current revival, while the shift of pitcher from "Sloppy" Thurston to first base strengthened Mission batting.

That shift showed no benefit yesterday when Oakland took the Missions down the line 10 to 2.

DI MAGGIO STAB AGAIN

Led by Joe Di Maggio, the San Francisco Seals blasted out ten hits against Portland, but the Ducks connected twice, and the Seals were divided a double bill to get back into the race after being idle Tuesday. The Stars ran away with the curtain raiser, 8 to 2, and the Senators took the nightcap, 2 to 1.

Cleo Carlyle, cleanup man, came through with a homer in the ninth with one aboard to give Los Angeles a 6 to 5 victory over Seattle.

Tiberius Takes Ascot Gold Cup

Sir Abe Bailey's Colt Easily First in English Race Meet Feature; Alcazar Second and Denver Third

Canadian Press Cable

Ascot, Eng., June 20.—Sir Abe Bailey's Tiberius to-day won the Gold Cup over a two and one-half mile course at Ascot. William Woodward's Alcazar was second and M. M. Bousac's Denver third.

Tiberius, a brown colt by Foxlaw out of Glenabatic, started at odds of 100 to 30. Alcazar, a bay colt by Achto out of Pricilla, Carter, was quoted at 20 to 1 and Denver, bay colt by Banstar out of Divine, at 100 to 6.

The highly-favored Brantome, French entry owned by Baron Edouard de Rothschild, finished fifth. Six horses ran.

Tiberius won easily with a margin of eight lengths. Denver trailed Alcazar by two lengths.

Achman and Son in Law were scratched shortly before post time. Denver and Elliott were added starters, however. Caymanas was fourth, Brantome a poor fifth and Bright Bird far behind.

"Tiberius" time was 4:35 1-5.

GREATNESS OF GRANGE SHOWN

Records Show Phenomenal Grigger Gained 8.2 Yards Per Carry

Associated Press

Chicago, June 20.—How good a football player was Red Grange? These statistics, released in connection with his acceptance of the backfield coach post with Professional Football League, tell Chicago Bears of the National the story of the prowess of the famous red head whose football playing days are over:

He played 237 regulation games of high school, college and professional football.

He carried the ball 4,013 times, gaining a total of 32,820 yards, or about 18.64 miles.

He scored 531 touchdowns and a grand total of 3,366 points. His life-time average gain per carry was 8.2 yards.

LALLY TROPHY PLAY MONDAY

U.S. All-stars Start Lacrosse Series in Vancouver Next Week

Vancouver, June 20.—An all-American lacrosse team, selected from eastern United States universities, left New York to-day and will arrive here Monday to meet an all-star British Columbia team in a best-of-five series for the international championship and the Lally Trophy.

The invaders will travel direct to Vancouver but will play exhibition games in Canadian cities on their return journey east. The itinerary for these exhibitions has not been arranged but President Dan McKennie of the Canadian Amateur Lacrosse Association said games would probably be staged at Calgary, Winnipeg and either Toronto or Montreal, and possibly at Trail and Nelson in B.C.

The series here and at New Westminster, B.C., will open June 28 with games June 29 and July 1. If the series extends further, dates for other games will be set in the week of July 1.

DON BUDGE BEATS MAKO

London, June 20.—Donald Budge of Oakland, Cal., defeated Gene Mako, of Los Angeles, 6-3, 3-5, 6-2, on a rain-drenched court to-day to reduce the United States champion to three and level the field into the semi-finals of the Queen's Club tennis tournament.

Throughout the match Budge concentrated on Mako's erratic backhand.

He carried the ball 4,013 times, gaining a total of 32,820 yards, or about 18.64 miles.

He scored 531 touchdowns and a grand total of 3,366 points. His life-time average gain per carry was 8.2 yards.

BAMBITO NOW LIVES EASILY

Ruth, With No Cares, Eats What He Wants and Plays Golf; Income $20,000

By EDDIE BRIETZ

Associated Press Sports Writer

New York, June 20.—What's become of Babe Ruth?

Ever since he quit Boston Braves cold more than three weeks ago, the great man has been baseball's No. 1 mystery. Nobody knew where he was, what he was doing, or why.

Once he yielded to what must be an eternal urge within him and went near a ball park. That was the last time the Braves played here.

But what is the big fellow doing? How does he spend his time and what is he thinking about? Here are the answers:

He rises when he pleases. He eats what he pleases for breakfast. He hasn't got to worry about getting his aging bones into a monkey suit and chasing fly balls all over the lot that afternoon. After breakfast he lights a cigar and spends half an hour with the papers. He reads the box scores closely.

SHOOT GOLF

Almost any afternoon finds the Bambino shooting in the low eighties on one of a half dozen Long Island golf courses. His round over, the Babe has a highball or two.

Then he motors back home, eats what he pleases for dinner and spends the evening at cards or the movies. There is no "hot spotting."

The Babe isn't completely happy and won't be until he's back in baseball in some capacity. Sure, there are offers. Every day he gets wires and telephone calls from semi-pro and touring outfits, who want to cash in on his drawing power.

So far, all have been turned down with thanks. He may weaken, but with $20,000 per year coming in for life, he can't bring himself to go about as a traveling circus.

Victorian Lawn Tennis Club To Open Buisy Season Saturday

Club Title Play Prelude To Major Canadian Tourney

Stronger Team of U.S. Players Will Be Here For Tournament

KEEN CONTESTS ARE SCHEDULED

As a prelude to the Canadian championship tourney which is expected to bring to Victoria in July United States players of a very high calibre, the Victorian Lawn Tennis Club will start its club championship play at the Fort Street courts on Saturday.

The club expects to open a season which promises to be one of the busiest in the history of the organization. With a list of new members which has reached 115, the club expects a large entry in the annual competitions. New members are especially invited to enter the various classes as there are handicap events as well as open. Already 160 entries have been secured, and with the closing time set at 6 o'clock at the club-house, Friday, many more names are expected to swell the total.

WIDE OPEN EVENT
At present both men's and women's championships appear to be wide open events. In the men's singles, Ross Hocking will defend the title. Competition should be very close in this class. Last year in winning, Hocking defeated March-Gordon in three sets. This event will see the return of Don Campbell, a former holder of the championship.

Besides these three former winners, Reg. Corfield is considered a definite threat. Corfield may be the dark horse of this meet inasmuch as he has been defeating all of the former champs in practice games.

Tim Matson, much improved after playing in England, is likely strong contestant. There are many other players in this section who might upset the balance of the affair.

WOMEN'S SINGLES
In the women's singles, Mildred Phillips, defending her title, will be faced with the same stiff opposition as the men's champion. Her chief opposition seems to rest with the Campbell family. Helen, now Mrs. Lay, after a lay-off of one year, has returned to the tournament and will be on hand in an effort to add the title to the long list of Campbell triumphs. Her sister, Betty, also will be a formidable opponent for Mrs. Phillips to subdue if they should meet.

Mrs. Helen Taylor Wilson, runner-up last year, and Betty Featherstone are both capable of making the going hard.

MEN'S DOUBLES
Gordon and McCallum, a firm of long standing, are the defenders in the men's doubles. They are strongly favored again, although a reported jury may keep the towering McCallum out of this event. Another team likely to be around when the finals are played is Don Campbell and Reg. Corfield. Carl Brand and Ross Hocking are teaming up for this event but they are an unknown quantity.

In the women's doubles, Mrs. R. B. Wilson and Jean Campbell were last year's winners and look to be a good bet to repeat again this year. Mildred Phillips and Betty Featherstone appear to be the next strongest team in a lengthy list.

There should be good competition in the mixed doubles, which Mrs. Wilson and Reg. Corfield are defending again. Mrs. Lay and her brother, Don Campbell, will be one of the favored teams, with Betty Featherstone and Hocking another likely pair.

All of the open events have drawn large lists and the handicaps are expected to fill before the closing time.

INVIADERS STRONG
Plans are already being made for the holding of the Canadian championships in July.

While many of the top-notch Canadian players are in England, the stay-at-home will try to make a fight of the various contests which are expected to draw a large and strong United States entry. For some years the invading Californians have annexed all the titles around here except for those taken by Mel Dranga and Hank Frusoff, who have made their sharp-shooting titles in the Canadian northwest tournaments.

Crusoff may go east with the prospects of adding the Canadian singles title to his list, which has been long since he decided to try the big time tournament in the east. Dranga is more or less a certain entry even at this early date. Both he and Crusoff are playing in the Seattle city meet this week.

CALIFORNIANS COMING
Letters have been received from many of the Californians players, including John Murio. Murio went to Salt Lake last year and left things for Dranga to win here. However, at the present time, appears to be every chance of seeing even better players than Crusoff, Dranga and Murio in the tourney.

The University of California at Berkeley has a good youngster, John Law, who has already entered the Seattle tournament, the Washington State, and it is said he will complete the circuit, including Victoria. His bid for fame lies in his victory over Wilmer Allison, in the southwest at Los Angeles last September. Allison is America's number one player.

Another youngster of note due to play here in the Canadian, is Robert Riggs of Los Angeles. Riggs is the second ranked junior in southern California, being topped only by Gene Mabo of UCLA and Davis Cup squad.

Joe Hunt, 1934 United States boys' singles and doubles champion, has also signified his intention of filling out an entry blank for the big event. Ray Casey, the famous southpaw with the big serve, is coming to play in the doubles event.

FRISCO GIRL STARS
Howard Kinsey, the best known teaching pro in the United States, who has a couple of national titles to his credit, has written on behalf of two San Francisco girls due to go places in the tennis world. He claims that one of his pupils, Margaret Osborne, is the best junior prospect in the United States. The other young miss, Kinsey writes about, is Virginia Wolfenden. Both of these players are still eligible for junior competition. Margaret, laid of Glendale, winner of B.C. mixed title last year, is coming again.

AFTER BERRYLEY BELL
Northwest officials are working hard to find a way to have Berryley Bell of Austin, Texas, play in northwest tournaments this year. He has entered the Washington State, along with another prominent player, and his present plans and there. Vancouver officials have offered to send him east by plane, after the western Canada, if he will play there. These two events precede the Canadian by one and two weeks. Bell is seventh in U.S. ranking list. With the Davis Cup squad taking five of the first ten in England, that leaves Bell just about the highest ranked player left at home. He has won many championships, and would be a big attraction to any northwest meet.

South Cowichan In Baseball Win

In a softball match on Sunday afternoon at Cobble Hill a snappy working South Cowichan nine routed the Shawinigan softball nine, when they chalked up a 7 to 3 score after a closely contested match. On the previous Sunday, South Cowichan administered a win over the Westholme squad at Cobble Hill.

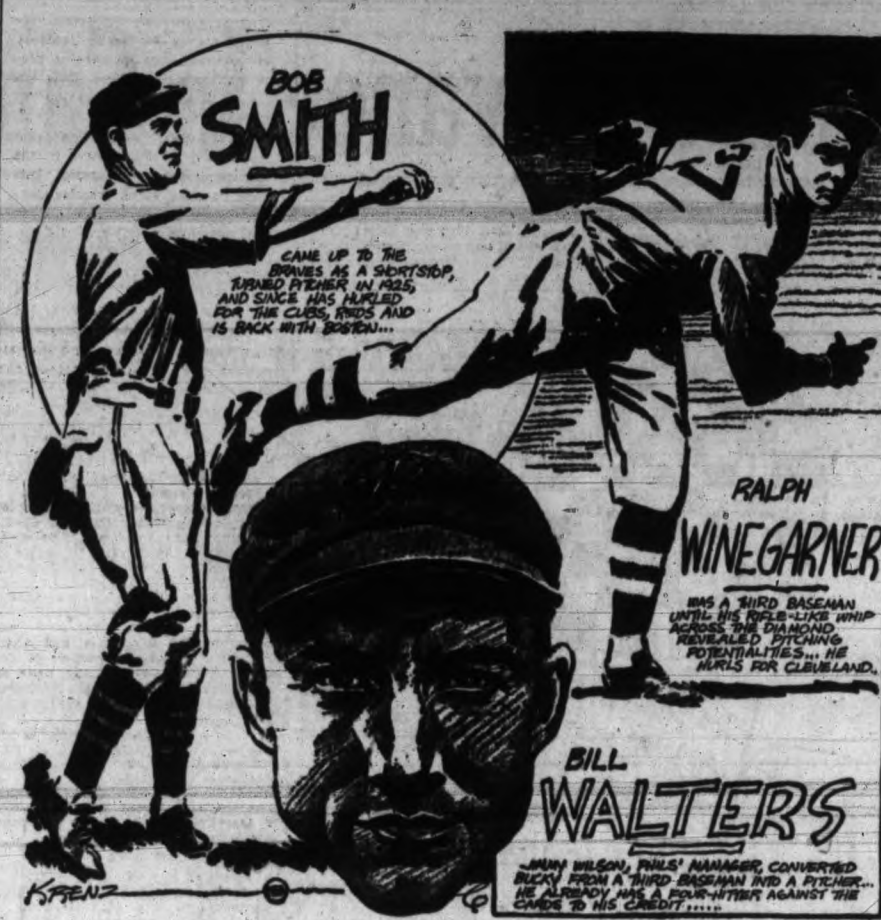

The line-up follows:

South Cowichan: R. Maxwell, T. Hillyard, R. Robertson, D. Reid, L. Reid, O. Doney, S. Evans, A. Mitchell and R. Low.

Shawinigan Lake: C. Levington, E. Seales, A. Aitken, R. Campbell, E. Levington, O. Cronk, W. Bonford, I. Monk and E. Gibson.

B. Doney umpired the match and F. Doney was official scorer.

Jimmy Johnson Meets Opposition in Scheme to Match Braddock Against Schmeling in September

Associated Press
New York, June 20.—Just when Jimmy Braddock will make the first defense of his heavyweight crown is uncertain. Jimmy Johnson, head of boxing at Madison Square Garden, is going ahead with plans to bring Braddock and Max Schmeling, former titleholder, together in September, but he is meeting opposition that may postpone the bout.

Joe Gould, Braddock's manager, has indicated he probably would hold the Garden to its contract—that Braddock made his first title defense in 1935.

WANT CHANCE TO CASH IN

"We want a chance to cash in on the title," said Gould. "We want to make an exhibition tour, maybe go to Europe and we might make a picture for Hollywood."

The second obstacle is the State Athletic Commission. Chairman John J. Phelan said he thought the commission would not approve of a Schmeling-Braddock fight until the Garden disposes of Art Laaky whom Jimmy liked en route to the top.

The commission's attitude is based on an agreement Gould is said to have made with Laaky after the Braddock fight. Laaky, who went into the match with bad hands, asked for a return bout, and Gould is said to have consented.

YALE-HARVARD RACE TO-MORROW

Associated Press

New London, Conn., June 20.—Still a-twitter over the magnificent rowing doings at Poughkeepsie, the crew world turned to-day from the turbulent Hudson to the placid Thames, where to-morrow, with President Roosevelt looking on, the eights of Harvard and Yale renew the oldest rivalry in United States sports history.

Harvard, never worried about what happens during the spring season, has piled up the unique record this year of being beaten by every variety of boat in the east except Columbia, last at Poughkeepsie, and Mass. Tech, which didn't go there. Yale, with the same attitude, beat the same two crews Harvard liked, but lost only to Pennsylvania. Penn was the only other crew Yale rowed.

THE BIG SIX

Associated Press

Buddy Myer, veteran Washington infielder, leaped into the Big Six yesterday as he kept his batting streak going while his teammate, Johnny Stone, reached the end of a spurt and dropped back. Myer smacked out four hits in eight official trips to the plate, in addition to drawing a handful of passes, in yesterday's double-header against Cleveland, to bring his average up six points to .344.

That enabled him to pass Stone, who dropped two points with three hits in ten times up, and a couple of other rivals to gain third place in the American League group and fifth in the Big Six. Main kept the other members of the sextette idle.

Alarmed Over Trade Prospect

B.C. Renews Plea to Ottawa For Settlement of Japanese Dispute
 While officially the Canadian-Japanese trade deadlock was unchanged to-day, the British Columbia government, alarmed at reports of a Japanese boycott against buying in Canada, prepared to renew representations to Ottawa seeking a settlement.
 Reports reaching exporters to-day stated July 1 had been fixed as the deadline on which Japan would cease buying Canadian goods. How far this was true could not be checked. Premier Pattullo said, however, he would communicate with Ottawa.
 Negotiations have been under way between Canadian and Japanese authorities for several weeks relative to the Japanese objection to the dump duty levied against its depreciated currency.
 British Columbia does approximately one-eighth of its world trade with Japan, and should that country shut down completely on its buying, the loss to this province would involve a market of roughly $6,000,000 a year.
 The Oxford Group Fellowship in Victoria has decided on a real forward movement. As a move in this direction, they have arranged to hold a time of quiet each weekday from 9.15 to 9.45, except Saturday, when it will be from 1.15 to 1.45. These gatherings will be held in the upper room, 617 Fort Street. All members of the fellowship are expected to attend as often as possible, also all those who are in sympathy will be welcome. Their daily quiet time will be in place of so many separate group meetings, and from it the fellowship expects the daily plans for the work to emerge.

 Plans were discussed for the forthcoming annual Revellers' tennis tournament which will be held on July 8.

SAW AMAZING DIA CHANGES

J. T. Whitty, Indian Administrator, Visiting City En Route to England

J. T. Whitty, successively district commissioner, member of the executive council and Governor of Behar and Orissa, India, since 1899, en route to retirement in England via Australia, Malay States, Java, Singapore, Honolulu, California and Canada, is a guest at the Empress Hotel before sailing June 29 on the Empress of Britain from Quebec.

Behar and Orissa in the fertile valley of the Ganges, has a population of some 40,000,000, mostly Hindu, mainly engaged in agriculture. Its capital is Patna, in Occidental India, and it is a land of contrasts. During the thirty-five years of Mr. Whitty's civil service he has seen amazing changes in India and government, thought and in methods of government, culminating in the recently-passed India Bill, whereby the franchise—a property one—has been enormously extended so that the government of provinces will be largely carried on by an elected ministry, instead, as hitherto, by an executive system of diarchy. The governor, however, appointed by the crown will still hold extensive emergency powers.

Mr. Whitty said he felt the governing classes of India were really little concerned about them. That the cry for their better treatment had been more or less a political battle cry. He had known Gandhi twenty years ago in British India, just after his return from South Africa.

The India Bill, says Mr. Whitty, is a big step forward in the direction of self-government for India. Whether it will be in the best interests for the various races of India remains to be proved but he hopes, most sincerely, that it will be. He worked for that end.

Viscount Willingdon, late Governor-General of Canada, is making a popular and wise ruler at the vice-regal palace in Delhi, he says. Speaking of the recent catastrophic earthquake in Baluchistan, Mr. Whitty said from all accounts it appeared similar to the one experienced last year in Behar and Orissa, when the damage was so great a survey for reparations had to be conducted from the air. It was during this survey he had had a nasty accident, falling from a horse.

Mr. Whitty was apparently first of the R.A.F. pilot had difficulty in taking off, and the plane overturned. Young at sixty, and with four-tons in England with whom at last he has found some companionship.

Mr. Whitty feels that his years of service for the empire are by no means over. "I know I shall find some work, unpaid, of course, somewhere over there."

He was anxious to visit Vancouver Island, as he had read a letter to a mutual friend in Australia saying: "I have bought a slice of Paradise on Vancouver Island."

DEATH CALLS MAJOR RHODES

Well-known Metchosis Resident Succumbs: Was Veteran of Great War

After a prolonged illness, Major Bernard Rhodes, M.C., passed away yesterday evening at the family residence at Metchosis.

Private funeral services will be held at the residence to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. H. M. Bolton will officiate, after which the remains will be interred in St. Mary's Cemetery, Metchosis.

Major Rhodes was the son of Capt. Henry Brooke Rhodes and Mrs. Rhodes of Barrack Park, Carlisle, England. He was educated at Charterhouse and the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich, and was gazetted to the Royal Field Artillery in 1908.

He went to France with the British Expeditionary Force in 1914, and was among the first artillery to land on French soil.

After the retreat from Mons, Major Rhodes was wounded in the Battle of Ypres and was awarded one of the first Military Crosses of the Great War.

In 1917, Major Rhodes was transferred to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and was loaned to the Canadian forces as instructor at the Royal Military College at Kingston.

Early in 1918 he again took command of his battery in France and remained in charge until the end of the war.

On retirement from army service he joined his brother, Captain G. H. Rhodes, at Cochrane, Alta., and moved to Metchosis in January, 1922, where he resided since.

He is survived by his wife and son, David; one brother, Captain H. Rhodes, Cochrane, and two married sisters living in England.

Mrs. Margaret Rhodes, a resident of Victoria for twenty-four years, passed away early this morning at the Beachcroft Nursing Home in her eighty-seventh year.

Mrs. Rhodes was born in Ramsey, Isle of Man, and came to Canada in 1901. She was the widow of John R. Rhodes, formerly of Red Deer, Alta., who was the first clerk of the Alberta Legislature, having held that office from the inception of the legislature in 1906 until his death in Victoria in 1924.

REMAND IS ORDERED IN WOUNDING CASE

Rupert Walker, Bowland Burritt and Donald Wood, facing charges of unlawfully wounding Michael Sharpe and Wilbert Lindstrom, appeared again in Saanich Police Court this afternoon and were remanded until June 25 at 10.30 a.m. for hearing. N. W. Whittaker appeared as defence counsel for Wood, and H. A. Beckwith for the other two defendants.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:
 Santa Monica, Calif., June 20.—To the Editor of The Times: At the great San Diego World's Fair yesterday Mr. Rogers received a tremendous ovation. There is no country in the world where a person changes from a hero to a goat and a goat to a hero or a versa as they do with us and all through no change of them. The change is always in us. It's not your finger on it, it's our public. We are the only flesh weighing over 100 pounds. We don't know what we want but we are ready to bite someone to get it.
 Yours,
 Will Rogers.

LEONARD IN GOLF SEMI

Ken Black Beaten in Canadian Amateur in Fifth Round at Ancaster, Ont.

Ancaster, Ont., June 20.—Stan Leonard, Vancouver, was the lone British Columbia survivor in the fifth round of the Canadian amateur golf championship this afternoon, Ken Black, his team mate, having succumbed to Steve Vickers, Calgary, 2 and 1.

Leonard won his way to the thirty-six hole semi-final to-morrow with a 4 and 3 victory over Jim Mountfield, Edmonton.

C. Ross Somerville of London, Ont., defeated Fred Wright, of Weston, Mass., in the fifth round, and advanced to the semi-finals. Wright won the eighteen hole and carried Somerville to the nineteenth before the four times champion could overcome the United States entry. Somerville sank an eight-foot putt on the extra hole and Wright missed a six-footer.

In the other fifth round match, Gordon Taylor, York Downs, Toronto, defeated Richard D. Lunn, Chevy Chase, Washington, D.C., 3 and 1. Leonard will meet Somerville to-morrow in a semi-final match.

WM. J. SHEPPARD IS LAID TO REST

St. Mary's Church was filled with mourners this morning for the funeral of William J. Sheppard, former provincial pianist. The casket and hearse were covered with many beautiful floral tributes.

Canon A. E. de la Huns conducted the impressive service and the choir led in the singing of the two hymns, "Peace, Perfect Peace" and "Breathe On Me, Breath of God." Interment was in the Mount Pleasant cemetery.

The honorary pallbearers were: P. C. Black, D. D. McTavish, O. B. Ormond, A. E. Thompson, W. H. Robertson, J. B. Munro and E. Hall. Active bearers were: O. C. Bass, K. C. A. Grant, J. Whittle, Whitehead, A. W. Findlay and F. A. Saunders.

TENDERS FOR SCHOOLS LET

Saanich Trustees Authorize Repairs and Repainting For Summer

Tenders for renovating work totaling slightly more than $1,700 were let by the Saanich School Board yesterday evening. The work will proceed immediately after the closing of schools for the summer vacation and will include repainting, re-roofing and general repairs to several buildings.

The trustees included additional work on the Prospect Lake school, which was not originally budgeted for, was followed by requests from the Parent-Teacher Association of that school. The total expenditure, however, was within $100 of the appropriation.

For repair work the trustees authorized an expenditure of $1,426.27 and for painting $1,303.

Contracts for the work were let as follows:

Clovelade school, A. B. Robertson, $588; Keating, A. B. Robertson, $189.27; Prospect Lake, J. Antrobus, $146; Royal Oak, F. Antrobus, $226; Saanich, D. Vallance, $22; Strawberry Vale, J. Antrobus, $215.

PAINTING
 Cloverdale, F. J. Blackett, $105; Keating, exterior, F. J. Blackett, $137.50; interior, W. N. Goldie, $75.50; Prospect Lake, exterior, F. J. Blackett, $117.50; interior, L. J. Bradshaw, $98; Royal Oak, exterior, F. J. Blackett, $140; interior, L. J. Bradshaw, $118; Saanich, exterior, F. J. Blackett, $147.50; interior, W. N. Goldie, $75.50; Strawberry Vale, exterior, F. J. Blackett, $171; interior, L. J. Bradshaw, $102.

Some tenders received by the board did not comply with the conditions while others were submitted too late. These were ruled out by the trustees. Seven were received for repairs and eleven for the painting.

Regulations governing the new system of placer-mining training camps were formally passed by the provincial government to-day.

Reply Made On Farmers' Act

No Provincial Objection to Private Settlement of Debts, Says Premier

Because British Columbia objected to the Farmers' Creditors' Arrangement Act applying to provincial contracts and taxation rights is hardly justification for making the act wholly inoperative in British Columbia as proposed by Premier Bennett. In the opinion of Premier Pattullo, Premier Pattullo wired Premier Bennett after his announcement to that effect in the House of Commons yesterday.

British Columbia's argument against the act was based solely upon its application to provincial rights and had nothing to do with the settlement of debts between farmers and private creditors, the Premier pointed out. The provincial government, he said, had facilitated the operation of the act in all regards except where it interfered with provincial contracts.

Following is the text of his wire to Premier Bennett:

"Press dispatches say that you stated that operation of the Farmers' Creditors' Arrangement Act would be withdrawn so far as British Columbia is concerned, and that British Columbia is the only province which has refused to co-operate with your government in administration of this act."

"The fact is our government not only offered to co-operate, but it did co-operate in administration of the act when first advised, and have on file acknowledgment from Dominion officers expressing appreciation thereof."

"It was only when we learned that it was the intention of your government to apply the act to provincial contracts, as well as to provincial taxation, that we were forced to the position of asserting the rights of the province by appeal to the court."

ALTERS CONTRACTS
 "A board appointed by your government formulated a proposal purporting to order that service be enforced the provisions of our Taxation Act."

"For us to admit that the Dominion has authority to alter provincial contracts and remit taxation would place us in a position of complete subordination to a board appointed by the Dominion Government in respect of disposition of our natural resources and imposition of taxation."

"These are matters of provincial concern, and wherever we have through it been compelled to compromise with our debtors, we have done so and will continue to do so."

"I think that the Dominion Government is taking a very imprudent course, and that if the Dominion Government will confine the operation of the act in British Columbia as between persons and property, it will be able to secure the operation of the act in British Columbia as between persons and property."

"I am giving a copy of this telegram to the press," the message concluded.

PUBLISHER OF ONTARIO HERE

Henry M. Heuston, of Canadian Observer, Sees Improvement in Country

Henry M. Heuston, president of the Canadian Observer of Sarnia, Ont., and partner-publisher of a group of Ontario daily newspapers, including The Recorder of Galt, The Sentinel-Review of Woodstock, and The Tribune Telegraph of Welland, is visiting Victoria after attending the annual meeting of the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association and the Canadian Press conference in Winnipeg.

Mr. Heuston is accompanied by Mrs. Heuston and is staying at the Victoria Hotel.

With interest centring in the approaching federal election, the boom of election funds will shortly overshadow all other developments throughout the country, states Mr. Heuston, who predicts a short, sharp campaign.

On his tour across Canada, the publisher of the business conditions satisfactory, with everything pointing to an upward tendency and steady recovery. He thought it regrettable that the country should be organized to disturb the country at a time when a herculean effort was being made to bring things back to normalcy.

Business and industrial revival in Ontario and Quebec, he said, was particularly encouraging. In the Maritimes, where they were not seriously affected by economic changes, the people were carrying on confidently.

BRIGHTER ON PRAIRIES
 On the prairies, Mr. Heuston found conditions more promising than they have been for years, with the farms bucked up by the prospects of a fine crop. Heavy rains were recently experienced on the plains, giving much-needed moisture to the soil.

When Mr. Heuston passed through Moose Jaw two weeks ago, the rainfall was so heavy that great pools of water could be seen for miles along the railway tracks. The rain, he said, was looked upon as a Godsend by the farmers of the drought area in southern Saskatchewan.

Another favorable indication on the prairies was the fact that conditions in recent years have forced the wheat farmers to go in more for mixed farming, with the result that they have been able to sustain themselves, fairly comfortably, and keep off relief, thereby relieving the burden of the taxpayer.

Mr. Heuston was last on the coast in 1917 and he finds that great changes have been wrought in Victoria in the interim.

George Stuart Purvis of New Westminster to-day was appointed by the provincial government as a member of the board of management of the Royal Columbia Hospital.

SLING SHOTS MENACE BIRDS

School Teachers and Parents Asked to Discourage Cruelty

Several complaints of youths using sling shots, especially in the Hollywood district, were reported at the monthly meeting of the committee of the B.C. Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and several have been picked up and wounded and have had to be destroyed. School teachers and parents were urged to help to abate this practice.

Native birds so necessary in keeping down insect pests, are all too scarce, and should be protected as much from utilitarian as from humanitarian considerations. During the summer months canaries are too often exposed to the full glare of the sun, and the committee of the S.P.C.A. wishes to point out that their cages should be so placed as to give them shade during the heat of the day.

At this time of year water troughs, many of which have been supplied by this society, should be kept clean and filled with fresh water.

During the last month thirty-six animals have been attended and 594 animals and birds inspected.

A standing vote of sympathy was taken in tribute to the memory of the late P. Landsberg, who was a valued member of the society.

The inspector who had recently visited Nanaimo reported that stock encountered en route appeared to be in good condition. Owing to recent rains the vegetation is making rapid growth and the country is recovering from the past dry weather.

Cases of cruelty or neglect should be reported to the inspector, G. A. Allen, telephone E 8351, or to A. R. Sherwood, secretary-treasurer, telephone E 7556.

PASTOR SOON LEAVING HERE

After almost a decade's service in the church life of Victoria, Rev. H. J. Armistage, B.D., minister of St. Aidan's Church, Mount Tolmie, has accepted a call to the Robson Memorial Church, Vancouver, and will commence his new duties on July 7.

Mr. Armistage has been with St. Aidan's for five years, during which his work and the work of Mrs. Armistage in the women's branch have been much appreciated. In this period, the church edifice has been renovated and beautified and a hall has been built in the rear of the building. Previous to the St. Aidan's appointment, Mr. Armistage was pastor at the Victoria West United Church.

At yesterday's meeting of the Victoria Social Union, Rev. Dr. W. G. Wilson voiced warm appreciation of the work of Mr. Armistage, who was elected chairman of the Victoria Presbytery at the Victoria meeting.

Rev. T. H. Griffiths of the Vancouver church will exchange places with Mr. Armistage on the same Sunday as the latter takes up his mainland duties.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL
 Many sympathizing friends attended funeral services yesterday afternoon at Christ Church Cathedral for Mrs. Mary E. Kingston. Dean Quatlen conducted the service, during which two hymns were sung, "Where the Light Forever Shines" and "Jesus Lives."

The following acted as pallbearers: Walter Miles, Cyril Godson, H. D. Day, William Middleton, T. H. Wollison and C. H. French. Interment was in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.
